Stewardship

Stewards Go Forward

Stewardship
a way of life

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you." GENESIS 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet, God promises to show His Stewards a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

Phyllis Sanders, parishioner and co-leader of the Multi-Faith Immigration Reform Committee, and Julie DeMareo, Pastoral Associate for Justice & Community Outreach, will meet with Congressional representatives in Washington, D.C. on March 5 to advocate for meaningful, Gospel-inspired immigration reform. They are members of a larger delegation of lay Catholics and Church leaders from the (Arch)Dioceses of Camden, Philadelphia, Scranton, Baltimore, and Providence. Do you have a compassionate heart and feel called to support people who have lost a loved one? Our parish Bereavement Minister team supports grieving families when their loved one has died by offering a comforting presence and helping to plan the funeral. The average time commitment is ~1.5 hours per funeral and ministers are asked to assist with 1-2 funerals per month. (Bereavement Ministers may also choose to attend the funeral itself, but it is not required.)

If you'd like to learn more about serving as a Bereavement Minister, please contact Julie DeMareo in the Parish Office at 856-667-2440 x327 or at jdemareo@christourlight.net. There will be one hour training for all interested volunteers as well as an opportunity to shadow a current minister.

Catholic Relief Services - A Story of Hope from Ghana

One thousand days: From conception to a child's second birthday, every day is vital for their development. But in rural Ghana, poverty prevents access to essential health and nutrition services, causing children to miss critical milestones. This can lead to serious health issues, academic struggles and limited job opportunities in adulthood.

To address this, Catholic Relief Services teamed up with the Sisters of Charity of St. Anne on a project in Walewale, Ghana, to help children up to 3 years old live happy and healthy lives by improving early childhood development. (Sister Yvonne Koudjonou, community leader and account officer, is pictured above at Our Lady of Rocio Clinic in Walewale, Ghana. Sister Yvonne was instrumental in meeting with the local chiefs and elders to enhance the clinic space.)

The project began more than four years ago when the sisters met with the chiefs and elders of the community about establishing a space at the Our Lady of Rocio Clinic to provide mothers and children with health education services and early childhood development activities. Today, the space teaches caregivers new ways to support their families, offers mental health services for moms, empowers communities through savings groups and strengthens families to build a brighter future together.

As part of the project, community volunteers were trained in skills like making early learning toys and starting savings and lending groups. Some of the toys the mothers learned to make include sensory shakers crafted from plastic bottles and stones or buttons, and fabric balls from scraps around the home. Sister Yvonne says that a sensory shaker is like music for a child. "It helps the child develop mentally and build muscle strength," she adds.

Georgina was one of the first volunteers and is now a lead mother in her community who trains female neighbors in what she has learned. A mother of three, Georgina brings two of her children to the space to learn how to make simple, inexpensive toys that engage children's senses and stimulate learning and development. She says that her children are seeing the benefits.

"They teach them how to count: one, two, three. ABCs," Georgina says. "Compared to those in the house that I live with [who don't attend the space], they are very smart indeed." Sister Yvonne emphasizes, however, that early childhood development cannot stop at the walls of the center. Mothers must make play spaces at home for their children and volunteers must teach new mothers what they've learned so that this knowledge will spread and other children can thrive.

Georgina sits with her 6-month-old son Ephraim at Our Lady of Rocio Clinic in Walewale, Ghana.

"This program has helped us change our lives and our children," Georgina says.

Mustard Seed - Thank You Thursday

Dear Christ Our Light Mission Friends:

The season of Lent is here, inviting us to pause, refocus, and turn our hearts back to the Lord with gratitude for all He has done for us.

Jesus entered fully into His life, passion, and death so that we might have life. During this Lenten season, we invite you to reflect with us on the five wounds of Our Lord: the wounds in His hands and feet and the wound in His side.

The prophet Isaiah reminds us that it is through the wounds of the Savior that we are healed. Those wounds continue to be a source of healing for us today. When we take time to reflect on Christ's suffering, we are reminded that love is present even in pain, and that hope is born from sacrifice.

May this season help us grow in gratitude for Christ's great love and deepen our trust in the healing He offers. Thank You, Lord, for suffering for us. Open our hearts to receive Your love more fully.

In Christ,

Very Reverend Monsignor Gregory Ramkissoon & the Mustard Seed Communities Family
