Easter - A Heartfelt Thank You

Easter does not happen by accident. Behind every candle lit, every song sung, and every soul welcomed into the Church this Holy Week, there were hands — faithful, generous, willing hands — working quietly to make it all possible.

We are deeply grateful to everyone who helped prepare our parish for the holiest days of the year. Our sincere thanks go to our Arts and Environment team — Mike, Quinn, Eddie, and Marcee — along with the Youth, KOCA, and the climbers, whose creativity and care transformed our worship spaces into places of prayer and wonder. Thank you to our Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Lectors, Hospitality Ministers, and Altar Servers — including Michael and Anthony — who served at the altar and at the door with grace and dedication. A special thank you to David and our entire Music Ministry, whose voices and instruments carried our prayers heavenward. And to Nancy and Chelsea for guiding our OCIA and Teen OCIA candidates so beautifully to the Easter sacraments — what a gift you have given them.

We are also grateful to Fr. Titus, Fr. Varghese, Deacon Paul, and Deacon Joe for their prayerful leadership and tireless presence throughout this sacred season.

And to each of you — our parishioners — who prayed, participated, and showed up: thank you. Easter is our feast, and we celebrate it together.

He is risen! Alleluia!

Fr. John Picinic

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for April 19, 2026
Luke 24:13-35

Adults:

In what way have you come to know Jesus better through the breaking of the bread at Eucharist?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth:

Jesus asked Peter three times to "feed my sheep." Who are you being called to help in your life right now?

Children:

When you next pray to Jesus during the Sunday mass, what would you like to thank him for?

Safe Environment Thank You

Safe Environment: Protecting Our Children Together

April is National Child Abuse Awareness Month — a reminder that keeping children safe is not simply a policy requirement, but a sacred responsibility we share as a community of faith.

We are grateful for those among us who take that responsibility seriously, day in and day out. A special thank you to John Keeley, Caitlin Crowell, and Mary Lou Lympert for their dedication to our Safe Environment program and the care they bring to this important work. We are also deeply thankful to the PTO Board for their diligence in ensuring that our guidelines were followed faithfully this year — their attentiveness makes a real difference.

And to all of our parish and school volunteers who have completed their training, renewed their certifications, and shown up with hearts committed to protecting our young people: thank you. Your faithfulness is a gift to every child in our care.

Christ calls us to welcome the little ones. You are answering that call.

Youth Ministry

Happy Easter!

The reflection that has been most paramount this year in YFF is: "Know that I am with you always, even until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20)

Increasingly, students and families are sharing what lies at the center of their lives. As youth minister, I see clearly that commitment is shaped by humility and a call to serve. I am grateful for each student/family who lives this witness so boldly—a testimony of grace that is alive, steadfast, and transformative. This is witness!

This is the heartbeat of Easter! Many thanks to our families/students who assisted in the many ministries here in parish life during Lent and in preparation for Easter. Thank you to our catechists who continue to embody Christ's presence through church teaching with love and dedication. Thank you all for your faithful witness! Easter Joy!
