Stewardship

Stewards Bear Fruit

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." - MATTHEW 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are stewardship virtues that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

The Word

Matthew 13:1-23

How are you sometimes rocky or thorny soil? How might you become more fertile for God's seeds to take root?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth:

What types of seeds might Jesus be trying to plant within you? What might you do better to allow these seeds to grow?

Children:

Can you remember a time a family member or friend tried to share the seed of a Godly gift with you, such as love, peace, joy, patience, kindness, compassion or forgiveness?

A Tribute of Appreciation and Thanksgiving

Celebrating Over Five Decades of Faith, Devotion, and Love

On July 17th, our community marks the end of an extraordinary era. Two of our most cherished pillars of faith, Ginny Grogan and Mary Lou Lympers, are officially retiring. For more than four decades, their names have been synonymous with dedication, warmth, and spiritual guidance at St. Peter Celestine and Christ Our Light Parish.

A Lifetime of Selfless Service

Long before taking on their formal roles in Religious Education, both Ginny and Mary Lou were familiar faces across our parish. Over five decades, they have stepped up whenever called, volunteering in various ministries, anchoring parish events, and quietly serving behind the scenes. Their impact stretches across generations, shaping the very fabric of our community.

Bringing Faith to Life Through the Years

Ginny and Mary Lou did not just manage classrooms; they brought the liturgical year to life with joy and reverence. They poured endless energy into the special moments that define our children's spiritual memories. Because of them, generations of families experienced the wonder of Vacation Bible School, the creative joy of the All Saints Assembly, and the deep spiritual focus of our Advent and Lenten activities.

Guiding Hearts to the Sacraments

Perhaps their most profound impact lies in their tireless devotion to sacramental preparation. Together, they gently guided thousands of young souls toward their First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion, turning nervous moments into beautiful encounters with God's grace. They also established traditions of deep devotion to Our Lady, meticulously planning our annual May Crowning ceremonies to ensure our children honored the Blessed Mother.

Ginny Grogan: Leading with Vision and Heart

As our Religious Education Director, Ginny has done far more than manage a curriculum. She has been a spiritual shepherd for our youth. With unmatched excellence, she created an environment where the Gospel came alive. Ginny navigated decades of cultural shifts with grace, always ensuring that our families felt supported, heard, and deeply valued as they raised their children in the faith.

Mary Lou Lympers: The Heartbeat of Religious Education

As our Religious Education Administrator, Mary Lou has been the steady, loving force keeping everything running seamlessly. Her work went far beyond paperwork and schedules. Mary Lou greeted every nervous first-grader, frantic parent, and busy catechist with a reassuring smile and open arms. Her incredible dedication ensured that our program was not just organized, but truly felt like a family.

To say that Ginny and Mary Lou went "above and beyond" is an understatement. They poured their hearts, minds, and souls into our youth. They sacrificed countless weekends, evenings, and personal hours to ensure our students received the finest spiritual foundation possible. They loved our families, and in return, became a deeply rooted part of our own family histories.

With Deepest Gratitude from Your Parish Family

Ginny and Mary Lou, words cannot fully capture the depth of our gratitude. You did not just teach the faith; you lived it out beautifully in front of us every single day. Because of you, generations of parishioners know the love of Christ.

As you step into this well-deserved next chapter of retirement, please know that your legacy is securely woven into the hearts of our people. We pray that God blesses you both with abundant health, endless joy, and deep peace.

Thank you for a lifetime of extraordinary service. You will be missed beyond measure, but your light will continue to shine bright in our parish forever.

May God continue to bless you both, with gratitude and many thanks, Father John

Religious Education

Dear Families,

It's with great enthusiasm that I announce the start of an exciting new approach to religious education here at Christ our Light!

The basic idea behind this new program is to teach both the children and to equip their parents with the necessary means and tools to share their faith with their children and family, hence, the title, "Family Faith Formation."

As St. John Paul II said, "the home is the first little Church." This will not only help build up the family that participates, but it will also help foster community and times for us to worship at the Sunday Mass, as one family being invited by Jesus, "Come and See."

Yet, on hearing about this concept, some parents have expressed the concern, "But I'm not trained as a teacher / I don't know enough about our faith / I've never volunteered as a catechist before!" As Jesus told us so often, "do not be afraid!" Faithful parents have been teaching in our religious education classes for years, without being trained theologians. As a parent, you will be provided with the materials and tools you need to help raise your children in the faith, and above all, there's something more that you've already been given – the grace of God and the inheritance of the Church!

Whenever a child is baptized in the Catholic Church, the child's parents are reminded that, in asking for his or her baptism, they are accepting the responsibility of training their son or daughter in the practice of the faith and to bring them up to live out God's commandments. The religious education of their children is part of the God-given vocation of parents, and the Lord never calls us to do something without also giving us everything we need to accomplish it! So, on top of the essential material and tools our parish will provide, God has given you his grace to do this!

Over the next few weeks, we will continue to provide some Q & A's and further details (FAQs link \ page) about our new program as well as in the bulletin; for registration information, please visit our website at www.christourlight.net.

I look forward to embarking on this new venture with you and allowing Jesus to transform our parish into a family of faith.

Care for Creation Corner

Creation Care Corner

"...we need to commit ourselves to caring for Creation, without squandering its resources" Pope Benedict XVI

Keeping it simple!

Benedict XVI taught that simplicity strips away worldly distractions, allowing us to encounter the fundamental truth and wisdom of God. He emphasized the benefits of a simple life, including finding profound joy in ordinary daily tasks, and warned that excessive focus on possessions ultimately fails to satisfy the human heart.

Pope Francis, in his encyclical Laudato Si', also cautioned us to avoid the "culture of consumerism." He warned us that "A constant flood of new consumer goods can baffle the heart and prevent us from cherishing each thing and each moment."

A simpler "outer" life, free of clutter and distraction, makes it easier to be more spiritual. In turn, greater spirituality leads to a less attached and simpler outer life. A virtuous circle! Material simplicity is an intentional pathway to more joy, happiness and the flourishing of God's Creation. Consider filtering your acquisition decisions through a lens of needs versus wants.

Pope Leo XIV on the 250th Anniversary of the Founding of the United States of America

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all Americans on the occasion of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This semiquincentennial marks that defining moment in the history of the United States of America, July 4, 1776, that gave enduring voice to the ideals of liberty, equality, the pursuit of happiness, justice and democratic self-government.

For two and a half centuries, generations of Americans have worked together to carry these principles forward — through sacrifice, service, innovation and civic participation. This anniversary stands as an invitation not only to celebrate the nation's remarkable journey, but also to reflect upon the responsibilities that the sons and daughters of this country bear to one another, and to the generations who will inherit the nation that is being shaped today.

Among the most cherished of these principles is religious freedom — the right of every person to worship according to conscience and to practice their faith openly, without coercion or fear. In marking this anniversary, it is important to recognize that freedom of religion has long been central to the American promise, protecting both individual dignity and the peaceful coexistence of a diverse people.

This same freedom has permitted the Catholic Church to take root and flourish within the United States, to the advantage not only of her own members, but of the entire nation. As faithful sons and daughters of the Church, Catholics are called to imbue every dimension of their existence with the charity of Christ (cf. 2 Cor 5:14), living out the Gospel in the circumstances of daily life. Such a way of living has given rise to the many benefits that the Church has provided over the years to the development of this nation. In particular, I bring to mind her service in areas of education, the preferential care of the poor, healthcare and basic social services, to name a few.

In the Encyclical Sapientiae Christianae, my predecessor Pope Leo XIII wrote that “no better citizen is there... than the Christian who is mindful of his duty” (no. 7). In fact, faith — far from standing in opposition to the responsibilities of citizenship — lends new vigor to the pursuit of justice, peace and the common good, bringing to perfection every natural gift bestowed by the Creator. Saint Paul himself encouraged the early Christians to pray for those in positions of authority in order to live a peaceful life in accord with the will of God (cf. 1 Tim 2:2). In this regard, it is in the faithful fulfilment of duty — to God and country — that Catholics are called to continue to serve the nation, as leaven for the growth of a civilization of love (cf. Mt 13:33).

Also among the principles that have guided the development of this country is the God-given dignity of every human life, each person being endowed with an inherent worth that calls for reverence, protection and care. In this spirit, a full understanding of this dignity leads to recognizing the importance of safeguarding human life from its beginning at conception until natural death, and of building a society in which the vulnerable, the suffering and the forgotten are always met with compassion, solidarity and love.

Defending human life also includes welcoming, protecting and assisting immigrants, whose hopes, sacrifices and contribution have formed part of the history of this country from its very beginning. In every generation, those who have arrived seeking freedom, opportunity and a place to belong have helped to shape the nation's character. To receive them with compassion and generosity is not only an act of charity, but also a recognition of the dignity that belongs to every human person.

In my recent Encyclical Letter, Magnifica Humanitas, I wrote about working together for the common good. “Building a world in which everyone can flourish requires shared responsibility and courage. No one can single-handedly bear the weight of the challenges the world is facing” (no. 13). We need one another, and we need to work together in unity to confront the challenges that the world is facing today.

May this milestone renew the shared commitment to the promise of freedom, justice, opportunity and democracy. May Americans honor the courage and vision of those who came before them by strengthening their communities, respecting their differences and working together toward a more perfect union.

Congratulations on this extraordinary national anniversary. May the spirit of 1776 continue to inspire hope and unity as the United States of America moves into the future. In assuring all of you of my prayers in your renewed efforts to strengthen the nation in the principles that guided its Founding Fathers, I entrust you to the intercession of the Immaculate Conception, patroness of this country, that she will continue to watch over America and protect all who dwell therein.
