Stewardship

Stewardship Blessings

Stewardship
a way of life

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." LUKE 14:13 -14

We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, a chance to play golf or our name in print. Yet, as Christian Stewards, we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.

Diocesan Victim Compensation Program

NJ Independent Victims Compensation Program

The Diocese of Camden – along with the other Roman Catholic dioceses in New Jersey – has established an Independent Victim Compensation Program (IVCP) to compensate those who, as children or young adults, were sexually abused by a priest of the Diocese. The IVCP is independently administered by experienced victim compensation experts Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros.

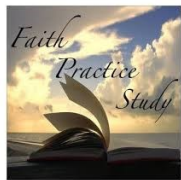

The IVCP will handle the submission, evaluation and resolution of individual claims, and operates independently of the Diocese or any church-affiliated institution. The administrators of the IVCP have complete autonomy to determine the eligibility of a claim with the guidelines of the established Protocol. The amount of compensation for those who make a claim will be independently determined by the IVCP administrators. All victims – no matter when the abuse occurred – are eligible to participate, and all matters will be handled confidentially.

Victims of clergy sexual abuse of a minor can begin the process of utilizing the program by going to www.njdiocesesiivcp.com and reviewing the protocol for submitting a claim.

Bishop Sullivan strongly encourages anyone who was sexually victimized by a priest of the Diocese to participate in the IVCP, and has asked that anyone who knows of someone who was abused to contact them so that they are aware of the IVCP and can participate in it.

Called to Faithful Action on Climate Change

September 1st is the World Day of Prayer for Creation and the start of the Season of Creation. - We are Called to Faithful Action on Climate Change

The World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation (Sept. 1st) marks the beginning of the month-long Season of Creation. Both the Vatican and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) are encouraging faith communities to mark the day and respond to the call to care for all of creation.

In 2015, Pope Francis wrote an encyclical, Laudato Si: On the Care of Our Common Home. It is a letter that calls all of us to unite in concern and action to care for the earth, protect the environment, and change attitudes about using resources wantonly to accepting the world “as a sacrament of communion, as a what of sharing with God and our neighbors on a global scale” (#9). “Laudato Si” means “Praise be to you” which is the first line of a canticle by St. Francis of Assisi that praises God with and for all of creation. Pope Francis address his letter to all people, not just the bishops or lay faithful, but ALL people of all nations, religions, and traditions. and calls for dialogue. The goal of the dialogue: “I urgently appeal, then, for a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. We need a conversation that includes everyone, since the environment challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concern and affect us all” (#14).

Pope Francis also has a very striking call to conversion for those in the Church as well. “The ecological crisis is also a summons to profound interior conversion. It must be said that some committed and prayerful Christians, with the excuse of realism and pragmatism, tend to ridicule expressions of concern for the environment. Others are passive; they choose not to change their habits and thus become inconsistent. So what they all need is an ‘ecological conversion’, whereby the effects of their encounter with Jesus Christ become evident in their relationship with the world around them. Living our vocation to be protectors of God’s handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience” (#217).

He also calls all the faithful to recognize that “The human environment and the natural environment deteriorate together; we cannot adequately combat environmental degradation unless we attend to causes related to human and social degradation. In fact, the deterioration of the environment and of society affects the most vulnerable people on the planet: ‘Both everyday experience and scientific research show that the gravest effects of all attacks on the environment are suffered by the poorest’” (#48). Working to care for the environment, in any form we can - recycling, advocating, reducing consumption - is a matter of justice and a mandate for all of us who believe the Good News. During this Season of Creation, Sept. 1-Oct 4, we can all make a special effort to care for our common home, the planet Earth.

Handbags for Mitzvah Day

You know what changes between seasons?...Ladies handbags!!!

But not everyone has that option. Most women and female teens who have left a volatile situation leave with only the clothing on their back. Women who have little or no income don't have the means to purchase a handbag. Please help these women in catastrophic need by donating your slightly used handbags filled with the necessities in the following list:

- Women's personal hygiene products
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Trial size shampoo and conditioner
- Soap
- Comb or brush
- Pocket tissues
- Pack of gum or roll of mints

The filled handbags will be donated to Anna M. Sample House Women's shelter in Camden, the Cherry Hill Food Pantry and others.

Note: In order to avoid clutter in the Gathering Space, we ask that you keep your donation at home until further notice. Thank you from the Mitzvah Committee.

Immigration Reform Group

The next meeting in support of Immigration Reform will take place at Christ Our Light on Monday, September 9, at 7:00 pm in the auditorium of Resurrection School which is adjacent to the Parish Center. Please use the doors on the left at the main entrance to the school. Join us for a follow up to the Vigil held on August 4, updates on the status of the NJ Drivers License Campaign and the Accompaniment Program, and other efforts to support our immigrant brothers and sisters. All are welcome!

Joseph's House Casseroles

Mark Your Calendars. Our regular casserole donations for Joseph's House of Camden resume with the next drop-off scheduled for Saturday, September 7, from 3:30 pm to 4:20 pm at the Welcome Desk in the gathering space of the church.

August donations included 8 casseroles, several large boxes of granola bars, trail mix, crackers, and desserts, as well as coffee, tea, sugar, creamer, laundry detergent, men's and women's clothing and shoes, and backpacks. Your continued support during the period of renovation was especially appreciated.

Since adding a day program, Joseph's House welcomes both breakfast and dinner casseroles. When your casserole is cooled, cover securely, label with the main ingredients and the date prepared and, if possible, freeze your meal. Store bought casseroles are also most welcome. Casserole pans and lids are available in the lower left cabinet behind the Welcome Desk along the church wall. Please use them, if you can.

In addition to casseroles, Joseph's House is always in need of snacks, coffee, creamer, sugar and many other staples. For a more complete list of needs, check out jhoc.org/wishlist. You can visit Joseph's House on Facebook, click on "Shop Now" and choose from a list of items which can be shipped directly to them. To make monetary donations or to Adopt-A-Cot, visit jhoc.org/donate. Please check out the website for the latest update on renovations and ways to contribute to the Capital Campaign.

Thank you for your continued generous support of this ministry for our homeless brothers and sisters. If you have any questions or would like to add your name to the e-mail list of regular contributors, please contact Phyllis Sanders at (856) 667-7064 or dfcps@hotmail.com.
