LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for September 8, 2019

Luke 14: 25-33

Adults:

What attitudes, possessions, prejudices, etc., can you surrender to become a more loving disciple?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

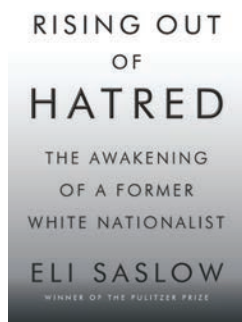

Teens:

How do you understand discipleship? What helps you remain a disciple of Jesus?

Children:

What can you do to follow Jesus more closely?

Stewardship

Stewards Renounce Possessions

Stewardship 14:33
a way of life

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." LUKE

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to live Stewardship and share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Youth Ministry

Fall Youth Ministry

Greetings,

I hope your week is going well! While spending time with my newborn baby boy over the summer I reflected on some of the blessings received in the ministries of the parish. As director of youth faith formation I am constantly seeking God's guidance. As we launch new programs, feel free to drop me an email, join me for coffee, follow our Insta page #COLYFF. See some of our testaments of faith below:

I think the faith formation team at Christ Our Light does an incredible job of supporting and teaching our teens. I think as a parent I need to do more to introduce Jesus into our lives every day. Thank you for all that you do. Kathleen Brickner, mom of twins

I will always stand up for people who aren't getting treated right. I will also always know that god is always next to me and protecting me. Julia 8th grader

I'm very happy with the YFF program and I especially love the "breaking bread" dinners and units of study other than from a workbook. The real world situations make the program so much more relatable and the opportunity for them to go and hang out, play sports and talk is a great addition to the program. Whether or not kids have a strong family unit sometimes they may just need a place to get away that is a positive atmosphere. Karin, mom of Jaydon Kerr

It's never too late to embrace your faith. Megan Pitt 9th Grader

We did a small version of sandwich making in youth group... this was fun to do with my friends while doing a good deed... open gym was fun too, I got to bond and play games with my friends. Matt Sonn 9th Grader

Youth at Lanning Square

Many thanks to our awesome COL faith friends (Bakers, McCurdys, Bruces) who met and served with the beautiful children of Lanning Square, Camden. Over the summer Chris, Paul Bruce, Hunter Sharp, Michael McCurdy and Macy Baker spent an immersion week in Trenton with the Center For Faith Justice coming up with a project to better serve the needs of our community. Ryan Sagedy will assist the group with their many projects during the school year.

Grateful to Dr Susan Stukes, community organizer and dentist, for her work for faith justice & importantly to all our parishioners for your generosity....forever grateful! Blessings @cfjworx #servetrentonmission #colyff

Diocesan Victim Compensation Program

NJ Independent Victims Compensation Program

The Diocese of Camden – along with the other Roman Catholic dioceses in New Jersey – has established an Independent Victim Compensation Program (IVCP) to compensate those who, as children or young adults, were sexually abused by a priest of the Diocese. The IVCP is independently administered by experienced victim compensation experts Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros.

The IVCP will handle the submission, evaluation and resolution of individual claims, and operates independently of the Diocese or any church-affiliated institution. The administrators of the IVCP have complete autonomy to determine the eligibility of a claim with the guidelines of the established Protocol. The amount of compensation for those who make a claim will be independently determined by the IVCP administrators. All victims – no matter when the abuse occurred – are eligible to participate, and all matters will be handled confidentially.

Diocesan Victim Compensation Prog. (con)

Victims of clergy sexual abuse of a minor can begin the process of utilizing the program by going to www.njdiocesesivcp.com and reviewing the protocol for submitting a claim.

Bishop Sullivan strongly encourages anyone who was sexually victimized by a priest of the Diocese to participate in the IVCP, and has asked that anyone who knows of someone who was abused to contact them so that they are aware of the IVCP and can participate in it.

Saving Lives in our Neighborhood Through Prayer, Presence & Truth

DID YOU KNOW... "your presence outside of an abortion clinic makes a difference? ...Well, let me tell you what Planned Parenthood announced at the last national conference I attended. They said this, 'Our no-show rate goes up to 75% when people are outside our clinics praying.' You see, when you come to pray, you are saving lives even if you don't know it. Women see you and instead of pulling into the parking lot, they drive right by. When you are on the sidewalk, women see you as an outward sign of their inward conscience. Your presence shows them that the decision they are making is morally objectionable. Doesn't it feel good to know that you CAN save a baby from abortion? You just have to show up. You have to be present." Abby Johnson <http://www.abbyjohnson.org/abbyjohnson/september-7-2013>

Fact: 220+ babies are killed at the CHWC every week. For more information please call 609-752-2212 or email sjpl-coalition@gmail.com.
