Catholic Social Teaching 101

Catholicism does not call us to abandon the world, but to help shape it. This does not mean leaving worldly tasks and responsibilities, but transforming them. Our entire community of faith must help Catholics to be instruments of God's grace and creative power in business and politics, factories and offices, in homes and schools and in all the events of daily life. Social justice and the common good are built up or torn down day by day in the countless decisions and choices we make.

1st Eucharist Prep Update

The children preparing to celebrate their 1st Eucharist and their parents have completed two of the three prep events as they look forward to their First Communion day. This event focused on the Gathering Rites of the Mass and the Liturgy of the Word. The children each received a Bible (the Word of God) and made scrolls to coordinate with the Scripture of Jesus reading in the temple. The children are participating with enthusiasm and we are grateful for your continued prayers.

Cathedral Kitchen

As you probably know, our parish has been supporting the Cathedral Kitchen in Camden for well over 30 years. Our involvement has changed over time but is still needed and appreciated.

Currently, the Kitchen could use individually wrapped sandwiches (preferably lunch meat and cheese) and individually wrapped snacks. There are no minimum requirements. Although the Cathedral Kitchen supplies a hot meal six days a week, they like to be able to give their guests a lunch bag to take home.

If you would be interested in this ministry, even on an occasional basis, please deliver your donations to 66 Ivy Lane, Cherry Hill by 10:00 AM on Thursdays. We make a delivery every week. If you have any questions, please contact Maureen or Tom at 856-779-7590.

Finding Rest in Mind, Body, & Spirit

The Bible reminds us that our bodies are temples created by God. To be healthy, we need to be in balance with God in mind, body, and spirit. Rest is as important as exercise and studies show that getting quality sleep on a regular basis has many health benefits, including a sharper brain, improved cardiovascular health, weight regulation, and immune system. It also helps boost the mood and lessen the chances of developing depression and anxiety.

- Help your Mind to sleep by releasing the day's worries (and tomorrow's) over to God.
- Relax your Body with some gentle stretching or scan your body from head to toe, noticing any tensions and breathing slowly and deeply as you release them.
- For your Spirit, your favorite bedtime prayer or the following:

Prayer for the Weary

Lord Jesus, you are the strength of the weary and a help for all in distress. Heal our wounded bodies and spirits. Strengthen our faith. Remove doubt from our hearts. Calm our nerves. Guide us through the day and give us restful nights. Keep our thoughts filled with hope, comforting us with your word. Bring us peace and renew our spirit. Be with us now and forever.

Mustard Seed Jamaica

Many Christ Our Light missionaries, including myself, have traveled to Jamaica to encounter the children living in their faith-based communities. Children who suffer from many diseases and have many forms of disabilities while having the amazing ability to love us who visit from outside the circle. The children welcome us with open arms on each mission immersion while we append so much prep time learning how to receive this spiritual love. The prayer at MSC, on every wall or vehicle, is- Thank You, Lord!

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, mission teams have not been able to visit with the children, and the organization has lost about $2 million in funds that would have been raised by these teams. Mustard Seed depends on mission teams to carry out its mission to serve the most vulnerable. Though the children may have been abandoned by their families, they have not been abandoned by God.

My time in Jamaica reminded me of the power of putting others first. It reminded me of the inherent goodness of people, and how fragile life is. Mustard Seed gave me so much more than the dollar amount I raised to visit with our parish. I would recommend this trip to anyone trying to find God, yet feeling blinded by obligations and worn down by failures to meet them. However, this year, it simply is not possible.

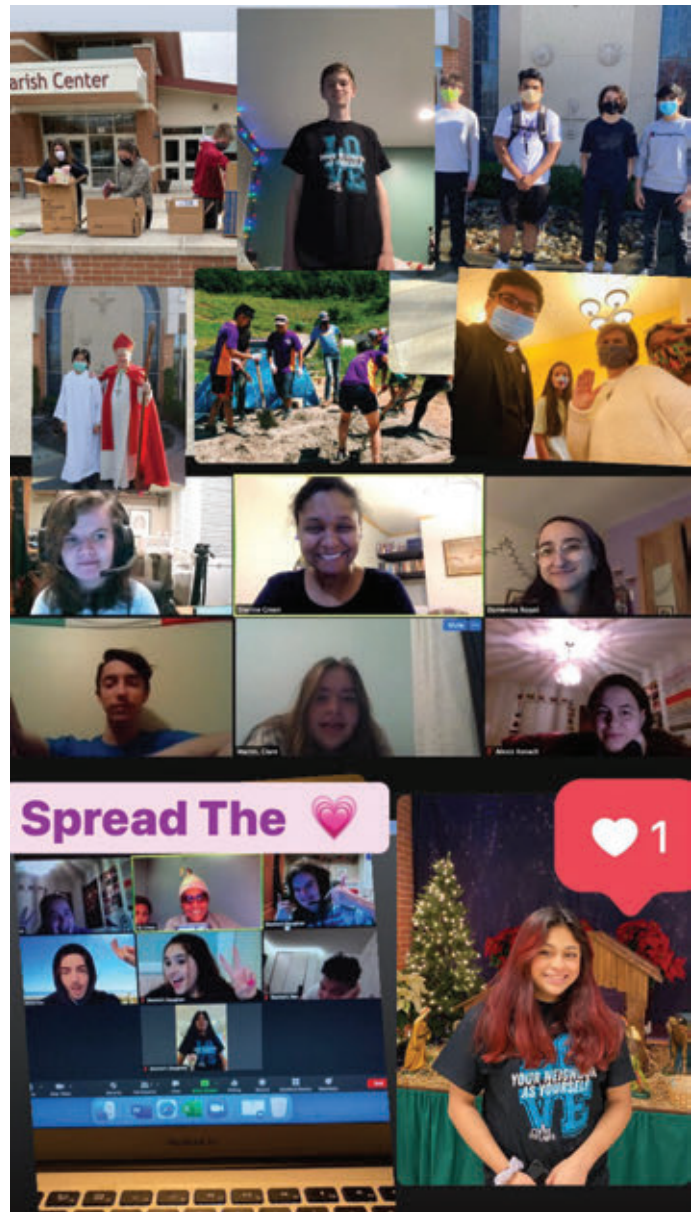

Mustard Seed is launching its Race for the Residents campaign as a form of virtual mission to support the workers and residents of the organization around the world. Below are some things we can do to support. I will be organizing with my college track team to see how to best assist.

- Pray for the residents and their caretakers.
- Meet some of the residents/ staff - virtual event.
- Attend a faith session on Catholic Social Teaching.
- Support the campaign financially, if you are able. Run, Walk, Dance for the cause.
- Attend virtual masses with Father Garvin.
- Share the word with friends and family!

Thank You!

Venerable Pierre Toussaint & Servant of God Mother Mary Lange

Venerable Pierre Toussaint

Pierre was born in Haiti and brought to New York City as a slave, where he died a free man.

Bérard, the plantation owner and Pierre's master, allowed Pierre's grandmother to teach her grandson how to read and write. In his early 20s, Pierre, his younger sister, his aunt, and two other house slaves accompanied their master's son to New York City because of political unrest at home. Apprenticed to a local hairdresser, Pierre learned the trade quickly and eventually worked in the homes of rich women in New York City.

When his master died, Pierre supported his master's widow and the other slaves himself, and was freed shortly before the widow's death in 1807. Four years later, he married Marie Rose Juliette, whose freedom he had purchased. They later adopted Euphémie, his orphaned niece. Both preceded him in death. Within the Catholic community, even during his lifetime, Toussaint enjoyed the reputation of an exceptionally devout and charitable person. Every day he attended the 6:00 a.m. Mass in St. Peter's Church, where he was a pewholder for many years. He also raised funds to build the original St. Patrick's Cathedral and St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Pierre donated to various charities, generously assisting blacks and whites in need. He and his wife opened their home to orphans and educated them. The couple also nursed abandoned people who were suffering from yellow fever. Perhaps his favorite charity was St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum, an institution that he often visited. Urged to retire and enjoy the wealth he had accumulated, Pierre responded, "I have enough for myself, but if I stop working I have not enough for others."

In recognition of Pierre Toussaint's virtuous life, the late Cardinal Terence Cooke introduced Pierre's cause for canonization at the Vatican in 1968. In December 1989, the late Cardinal O'Connor had the remains of Pierre Toussaint transferred from Lower Manhattan to St. Patrick's Cathedral in midtown Manhattan where he is buried as the only lay person, alongside the former Cardinal-Archbishops of New York City. On December 17, 1997, Pope John Paul II declared Pierre Toussaint, Venerable, thus placing him firmly on the road to becoming North America's first black saint.

Servant of God Mother Mary Lange

She was born Elizabeth Lange in around 1794 in Santiago de Cuba, where she lived in a primarily French speaking community. She received an excellent education and in the early 1800s Elizabeth left Cuba and settled in the United States. Elizabeth came to Baltimore as a courageous, loving, and deeply spiritual woman. There was no free public education for African American children in Maryland until 1868, so she responded to that need by opening a school in her home in the Fells Point area of the city for the children.

Providence intervened through the person of Reverend James Hector Joubert, SS, who was encouraged by James Whitfield, Archbishop of Baltimore, and presented Elizabeth Lange with the idea to found a religious congregation for the education of African American girls. Father Joubert would provide direction, solicit financial assistance, and encourage other "women of colour" to become members of this, the first congregation of African American women religious in the history of the Catholic Church. Elizabeth joyfully accepted Father Joubert's idea. On July 2, 1829 Elizabeth and three other women professed their vows and became the Oblate Sisters of Providence. Elizabeth, foundress and first superior general of the Oblate Sisters of Providence, took the religious name of Mary.

William Cardinal Keeler, Archbishop of Baltimore, opened a formal investigation into Mother Lange's life and works of charity in 1991. The Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith approved the cause of her sainthood in 2004, and Archbishop William Lori of Baltimore celebrated a canonical celebration at the transfer and blessing of Mother Lange's remains. The faithful venerated the relics before they were sealed in a reliquary and sarcophagus in the chapel's oratory. The sarcophagus cannot be reopened without Vatican permission. Also present at the celebration were Bishop John H. Ricard, bishop emeritus of Pensacola-Tallahassee, and Xaverian Brother Reginald Cruz, vice postulator for Mother Lange's cause for sainthood.

If the Congregation for the Causes of the Saints approves the position being written by Brother Cruz, Mother Lange, currently considered a "Servant of God," would be given the title "Venerable." A confirmed miracle attributed to her intercession would then be necessary for her beatification, and a second miracle would be necessary for her canonization.
