Stewardship

Stewardship Lived

Stewardship
a way of life

"...He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." (ACTS 10:38)

We can't give what we don't have. Open your heart to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Then, show the same to others through your Stewardship. As God's adopted sons and daughters, we are made in His image and likeness. As Pope Benedict XVI says, "we are made for greatness." Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray to live a grateful and generous life. Strive for greatness! We are made for more! We are made for God!

Want to Talk?

Do you want to navigate disagreement in a healthier way?

Are you concerned about political polarization?

Is there a tough topic you want to bring up, but you don't want another argument?

Introducing:

Want to Talk? Communication Tools for Divided Times

Beginning this fall Christ Our Light will be sponsoring an 8 session, small group program on how we can have tough conversations on subjects that matter.

This series has been developed by JustFaith Ministries, an organization based on Catholic social teaching, which will draw on the wisdom of experts in nonviolent communication and civil dialogue. It will help us to deepen our relationships while staying true to our values, providing practical tools for navigating the political polarization of our time as well as other difficult conversations with loved ones and friends.

Additional information will be in the bulletin and on the parish website in the weeks to come. Post cards will go out to registered families. Sessions will be held both remotely and in person, during the day and in the evening. Days and times will be decided based on participants' availability. The program is open to everyone, parishioners and non-parishioners. There will be an informational tables and individuals available to answer questions after all the Masses the weekend of May 21st and 22nd.

We believe this will be an invaluable resource to our community and hope you will consider joining. Let's Talk!

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for April 17, 2022

John 20:1-9

Adults:

What change could the hope of the Resurrection of Christ inspire you to make?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Teens:

Resurrection reminds us that what looks bad can lead to something good. What has resurrected, or gone from bad to good in your life over the past year?

Children:

What bad habit would you like to "clear out" during the hopeful time of this Easter season?

LGBTQ+ Group

We are happy to report that the group working to form this group has made significant progress and hope to launch this group soon. This group is for all persons who are LGBTQ+ , their family members, friends and allies. The group is open to those 18 years and older. Look for future announcements for the launch of this new ministry. If you have any questions, please contact Al Martino at 856-235-4388 or by email at almarti-no08054@gmail.com.

Christ Our Light Prayer Group

Divine Mercy Sunday

The COL Prayer group will be celebrating "Divine Mercy Sunday", on April 24th from 3-4 PM. There will be an exposition of the blessed sacrament during the hour of mercy. The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed followed by a prayer for consecration to Divine Mercy. All are welcome to join us in person at church or virtually via zoom. Don't miss the "special graces" that Jesus promised St Faustina, to those who prayed the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy.

Vacation Bible School

"Food Truck Party: on a roll with God"

- We are excited for this summer's VBS scheduled for July 11 – 15, 9am-Noon. The theme is based on Matthew 6:11 – "give us this day our daily bread," reminding us that everything we have comes from God and that we are called to turn to God in prayer for our daily needs

Enthusiastic VBS team members will make Food Truck Party come alive for the "chefs" (participants)! Help is needed to:

Assist in creating a Food Truck décor by helping to assemble a food truck like environment in the Parish Center Gym. Lead groups of "chefs" (children) through 5 Activity Centers. Oversee Activity Centers: snacks, crafts, games, skits

A volunteer form is included in this week's Bulletin. If you want to be "on a roll" with VBS, complete and return the volunteer form to the EFF office or scan it and return to ggrogan@christourlight.net. NOTE: volunteers over the age of 18 must complete a background check and fingerprinting per the Diocese of Camden safe environment policy.

Attention All Runners

Are you running the Broad Street Run this May? Several parishioners are looking to connect with others who are taking on the 10-miler. If you will be running down Broad Street on May 1, please contact Cathy Johnson at cjohnson@christourlight.net.

Justice & Community Outreach

Immigration Justice Task Force

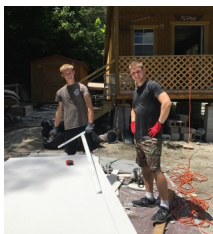

Join us, in person, on Monday, April 25, at 7 pm in St. Mary's Room of the Parish Center, as we reset our work on behalf of our immigrant brothers and sisters. Our guest speaker will be Sara Navarra. Sara was born in Honduras and grew up in Philadelphia. She is a graduate of Little Flower Catholic High School in Philly and obtained a BA in Religious Studies from St. Elizabeth University in Morristown, NJ. Sara is also a DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) recipient. Sara is currently the Administrative Assistant/Social Media Coordinator at the Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Center in the Cramer Hill Neighborhood of Camden.

During this past year, Sara has been assisting the immigrant community whose lives have been significantly impacted by the pandemic, as well as other issues. Sara will share her experiences and the needs of the immigrant community. There will also be updates on State and Federal bills that need immediate attention. We look forward to your gathering with us. Masks are respectfully recommended.

Earth Day 2022

The Earth is our home. We survive because of the things that the Earth provides. Other than meteorites, can you name anything that you have that was not provided, directly or indirectly, by the Earth? We draw food, clothing and shelter from the Earth. The Earth provides us with opportunities for work, leisure and play activities. Should we not take proper care of the place where we live? Surely, we should be responsible custodians of the Earth, of Creation? We can thank God for the marvelous works entrusted to our care. With Earth Day 2022 quickly approaching, the Justice and Outreach Ministry at Christ Our Light is using the day to begin our new Climate Change Column in the Bulletin. We will share suggestions that identify ways that we all, as individuals, can help be good custodians of creation - our earth and all the people, animals, and plants that live on it. Each suggestion will be accompanied by thoughts that try to explain why it's a good idea. If you disagree, please feel free to open discussion so we can build our understanding. We're not dictating, we're suggesting, and open discussion can only build awareness and understanding. Our hope is that we can help each other to change our ways, our everyday habits, to reduce the ways in which we might inadvertently or unknowingly bring harm to our environment, to creation. We always aim to be constructive and instructive, never destructive. Let's start with the prayer that Pope Francis taught us in 'Laudato Si', his encyclical on the environment and human ecology.

*Creator God, please guide us
Help us act in love and courage
To honor You, O Creator
And to fulfill our role as protectors of
The Earth, our common home.*

*The poor and the earth are crying out.
O Lord, seize us with your power and light,
Help us to protect all life,
To prepare for a better future,
For the coming of your Kingdom
Of justice, peace, love and beauty.*

Amen.

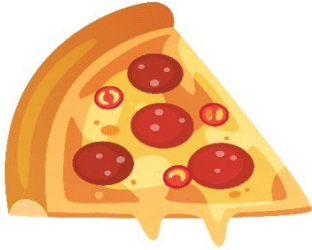

Helpful Hint: Skip the straw

The New Jersey shore has banned plastic straws from being given out with drinks. We can go farther by not accepting plastic straws at the local restaurants where we eat. Just say "Skip the straws please." We can bring reusable stainless steel or bamboo straws to the restaurant to use instead. Obviously, these straws can also be used at home. We should Refuse and Reuse because plastic straws cannot be recycled.

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Miracle of New Life

Risen Lord,
you open our eyes to the miracle of new life.
May the resurrection embolden us to be witnesses of the power of your love
in our day.
Our world is in need of your abundant grace and greater awareness of your abiding presence with us.

Help us to reflect the courage, joy,
and enthusiasm
of Mary, John, and Peter.
Bless the words we speak, and every action
and gesture,
that in our living we may give you glory.
You live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Gift of Easter

Today's readings: Acts 10:34a, 37–43; Psalm 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23; Colossians 3:1–4; John 20:1–9. Imagine living through the events of last week as one of Jesus' disciples. Everything appeared to be over, their hopes and dreams gone.

All changes on Easter morning. Mary of Magdala goes to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body, a ritual that could not be done until after the Sabbath. Discovering the stone removed, she runs to find the disciples. Peter returns to the tomb and enters to find the burial cloths pushed aside and the face cloth rolled up separately, clearly an indication that Jesus had no intention of returning to the tomb. Upon viewing the interior of the tomb, the beloved disciple "saw and believed," the Gospel tells us. Death that once created a chasm between humanity and God has no more power.

A tomb is associated with physical death. But other kinds of tombs exist; these can hold people in fear, anger, and loneliness. The gift of the resurrection is new life. This new life shatters the darkness of this world and offers us the chance to leave behind our "tombs." What better gift could Jesus give us? The promise celebrated at Easter is one that brings us to rejoice, trusting that God is with us. This promise makes all the difference. As the reading from Colossians states, "When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory."

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, April 18

Do Not Be Afraid

Jesus tells the women and us, “Do not be afraid.” What do you fear? These women were on their way to proclaim Christ’s rising. Do you fear your responsibility to witness to Christ? Wherever fear is present in your life, remember Jesus’ words. Today’s readings: Acts 2:14, 22–33; Psalm 16:1–2a and 5, 7–8, 9–10, 11; Matthew 28:8–15.

Tuesday, April 19

Whom Are You Looking For?

“Whom are you looking for?” Jesus asks Mary Magdalene. Though they are friends, Mary does not recognize the Lord until he says her name. It is easy to overlook any number of ways Jesus tries to interact with us. He is always there, waiting for our eyes to open and our hearts to recognize him. Take time to converse with Jesus about the places where you need to be healed. Be with the Lord in silence, listening for him to say your name. Today’s readings: Acts 2:36–41; Psalm 33:4–5, 18–19, 20 and 22; John 20:11–18.

Wednesday, April 20

Transforming Presence

Think of a time when you were most heartbroken over a change in your life. That same feeling may have filled the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Thinking that the man they had followed was gone, they were returning to their former lives. After Jesus’ opening of the Scriptures and breaking of bread, they recognize him and head back to Jerusalem. Each time we celebrate the Liturgy of the Word and Eucharist we too experience an opening of our minds and hearts to see Jesus present with us. How can you take that awareness of Jesus’ presence into your life today? Today’s readings: Acts 3:1–10; Psalm 105:1–2, 3–4, 6–7, 8–9; Luke 24:13–35.

Thursday, April 21

Peace

Peace is not the absence of struggle, fear, or worry. Peace is the gift that empowers us to live through those things, realizing that we are not alone. “Why are you troubled?” Jesus asks his disciples, and us. When the trials of life seem overwhelming, it is important to stop and take a breath. That pause provides a moment to remember the presence of God and the promise of God to be with us always and in all ways. Peace comes in the pause. Today’s readings: Acts 3:11–26; Psalm 8:2ab and 5, 6–7, 8–9; Luke 24:35–48.

Friday, April 22

The Cornerstone

A cornerstone is a stone that forms the base of a corner of a building by joining two walls. In the reading from Acts, Peter calls Jesus “the cornerstone.” He is our foundation and gives shape and form to all we do. As you deal with the concerns of your life, remember who is the one who brings all things together and who will do the heavy lifting, easing your stress and fear, Jesus. Today’s readings: Acts 4:1–12; Psalm 118:1–2 and 4, 22–24, 25–27a; John 21:1–14.

Saturday, April 23

God Is in the Details

“It is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard,” Peter and John told the leaders who demanded that they not speak or teach in Jesus’ name. When do you speak in Jesus’ name? God’s goodness is all around us, even present when times are difficult. Before complaining about a situation, pause to take a good look and see where God might be hidden in the details. Today’s readings: Acts 4:13–21; Psalm 118:1 and 14–15ab, 16–18, 19–21; Mark 16:9–15.

Youth Ministry

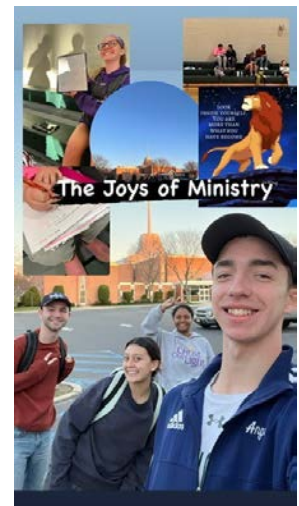

Youth Ministry

Why my confirmation and my relationship with God is important to me.

I take pride in being a student of Resurrection Catholic School and being part of the Christ Our Light Church community. It is a part of who I am and has been since I was little. I was baptized here and have grown up here. I value the teachers, the principal and the students/friends I have in RCS. My parents are also very proud me and the hard work I have done to be a good student and good member of the community. Their love and pride in me is very important. I also enjoy being of value, helping others, and being a giving and good person. I am lucky in so many ways and I know that others are not and are struggling. It is important to take care of others and to be kind and caring. Continuing my sacraments and my faith is just part of who I am.

Thanks, Aiden Myers

William James Pizzuto, Rosemary A. DiSalvo

Hour of Adoration

Every 3rd Wednesday of the month we will be having an hour of Adoration at 5:00 PM in the Church.

Come and experience the powerful presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. We will be using the iBreviary app during the service which can be downloaded on your cell phone either on the App Store or by going to <https://www.ibreviary.org/en/>.
