Stewardship

Stewardship Love

"...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (JOHN 21:17)

How often do you actually say the words "I love you" to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all crave love. Live your Stewardship by telling someone you love them every day.

Called to the Priesthood

His Excellency, Bishop Dennis J. Sullivan has called DEACON PAUL ABBRUSCATO who was assigned to The Catholic Community of Christ Our Light for his pastoral year to the order of PRIESTHOOD. The church rejoices in the commitment to ministry which he has made and we announce it to you with great joy. The ordination will take place on May 14, 2022.

Traveling with Mary - Patricia Gardner

Christ Our Light is hosting Patricia Gardner for a presentation on her new book Traveling with Mary through the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises. She will speak about the Exercises and how Mary can companion with us to her Son.

Please join us on Tuesday May 10th in the Parish Center St. Mary Room at either 10am or 7pm. RSVP at the link on the parish website.

LGBTQ+ Group

We are happy to report that the group working to form this group has made significant progress and hope to launch this group soon. This group is for all persons who are LGBTQ+ , their family members, friends and allies. The group is open to those 18 years and older. Look for future announcements for the launch of this new ministry. If you have any questions, please contact Al Martino at 856-235-4388 or by email at almartino08054@gmail.com.

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for May 1, 2022

John 21:1-19

Adults:

When has your belief in the Risen Jesus helped redirect you to something that provided abundance?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Teens:

How are you called to serve others out of your love for Jesus?

Children:

How does Jesus know that you love him?

To Live Again Grief Support Group

To Live Again, a support group for widows and widowers, meets on Mondays at 6:00 pm. These are in-person meetings. If you have any questions, please contact the parish office and we will put you in touch with a group leader. 856-667-2440 or parishoffice@christourlight.net.

Want to Talk?

Do you want to navigate disagreement in a healthier way?

Are you concerned about political polarization?

Is there a tough topic you want to bring up, but you don't want another argument?

Introducing:

Want to Talk? Communication Tools for Divided Times

Beginning this fall Christ Our Light will be sponsoring an 8 session, small group program on how we can have tough conversations on subjects that matter.

This series has been developed by JustFaith Ministries, an organization based on Catholic social teaching, which will draw on the wisdom of experts in nonviolent communication and civil dialogue. It will help us to deepen our relationships while staying true to our values, providing practical tools for navigating the political polarization of our time as well as other difficult conversations with loved ones and friends.

Additional information will be in the bulletin and on the parish website in the weeks to come. Post cards will go out to registered families. Sessions will be held both remotely and in person, during the day and in the evening. Days and times will be decided based on participants' availability. The program is open to everyone, parishioners and non-parishioners. There will be an informational tables and individuals available to answer questions after all the Masses the weekend of May 21st and 22nd.

We believe this will be an invaluable resource to our community and hope you will consider joining. Let's Talk!

Young Adult Ministry

Happy Easter! I'm reaching out to let you know about an event for young adults that Christ Our Light is hosting on May 14th. From 5:30-7pm in the Parish Center (or outside if the weather is nice), young adults from across the diocese are invited to join us for food, prayer, and fellowship. We will grill some food and have some sides, enjoy games and conversation, and pray together to end the evening.

If you'd like to include something in your bulletin or on your parish's social media site(s), I've written up the following blurb and created the attached image. "Christ Our Light Young Adult Ministry is hosting a Summer Kickoff event on May 14th from 5:30-7pm at the Parish Center. Anyone aged 21-39 is invited to join us for this evening of food, prayer, and fellowship. Please RSVP to Cheyenne Schuster at cschuster@christourlight.net by May 6th to help us plan for food. No need to bring anything, just yourself!"

Please extend this invitation to anyone you know who might be interested and don't hesitate to reach out or send anyone my way with questions. Have a great rest of your day!

New RCS Principal

My dear brothers and sisters of Resurrection Catholic School of The Catholic Community of Christ Our Light:

I am happy to announce that Miss Geraldine Janansky has accepted the position of Principal beginning July 1, 2022.

I want to thank the Principal Search Committee for their diligent work in the many hours examining paperwork and conducting interviews. The process was thorough, extensive and completed with professionalism.

Miss Janansky comes to us from Assumption Regional Catholic School in Galloway, NJ. She served as a Literature teacher there for eight years. She also held leadership roles ranging from startup programs and initiatives at Assumption to being interim—Principal.

Her educational background includes a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Subject Matter Education from Rowan University in Glassboro, NJ. She has various licenses and certifications including a NJ Teacher's certification. In addition, Miss Janansky holds a Masters Degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Notre Dame, in South Bend, IN.

I offer a very warm welcome to Miss Janansky and wish her much success. I ask you to join me in praying for her and supporting her as she takes on this new role as principal of our excellent school. I also ask that you pray for our entire faculty, support staff, students and families as we begin this new chapter at Resurrection Catholic School.

I also extend a gracious, well deserved thank you to Mrs. Molly Webb. Mrs. Webb served our school and parish community with excellence, dedication, and passion. She was a teacher here for four years and then served as our Principal for the last six years, leading the school with grace and confidence through the challenging Covid pandemic. We wish you well and only the best in all things. God bless you, Mrs. Webb.

May God continue to bless our community during this Easter Season.

In Christ Jesus, Father John P. Picinic

Joseph's House Casseroles

Mark Your Calendars! Our next delivery of casseroles to Joseph's House of Camden will be Monday morning, May 9, 2022. Thank you for your generous donations in April including 17 casseroles, snacks, cookies, cupcakes, coffee, tea, sugar, creamer, candy, socks, shoes, scarves, umbrellas and sunglasses, all of which helped to share Easter joy with the guests at Joseph's House.

As in the past, casseroles and other donations for Joseph's House should be dropped off in the Servers Room in the Ministry Center. Please put casseroles in the freezer and other items on the cart. If you can, please use the pans and lids provided for the casseroles which can be found in the lower left cabinet on the church wall behind the Welcome Desk. Mark with date prepared and main ingredients. Make sure lids are secure and tight to keep the food safe and sanitary. If lids are not available, please secure tightly with tin foil.

At this time, no coffee is needed. However, sandwiches, snacks, water, tea, sugar and creamer and toiletries are always welcome. For other much needed items and other options to donate, please check out the Joseph's House wish list at jhoc.org/donate.

Thank you for your continued commitment to this ministry. If you have any questions, please contact Phyllis Sanders at dfcps@hotmail.com or (856-667-7064).

Senior Companions Needed

Homebound parishioners would love your visits! Volunteer opportunities available. Just an hour or two of your time (on your schedule) can brighten someone's day and yours, too! For more information, contact the parish nurses through the parish office, or email at: LeslieLSkolnik@gmail.com, Sbruce7@comcast.net, or Paulinesundell@gmail.com. Thanks for your consideration of this ministry.

Item Donations for Mission to KY

Item donations for Mission to David, KY

This year's mission trip May 28-June 4 is our seventh trip to Appalachia in general and our fifth serving with St. Vincent Mission in David, KY. Our parishioners who are attending the mission are John and Gina Poserina, Leslie Skolnik, Gloria Giordano, Cathy and Paul Johnson and Pat Slater.

For the next few weekends, we will be collecting items requested by St. Vincent Mission. This year they are asking for donations of underpants, any size, any age, any gender; however, must be new. There will be a bin available in the gathering space for your donations from May 7 until May 26th. You are also welcome to donate gift cards to Walmart (not Target). Please turn those in to the parish office. Please hold our mission team in your prayers as well as the people of St. Vincent Mission and our neighbors in David, KY.

Christ Our Light Food Pantry

We are in need of someone to help pack bags for those who call in with a food request. This person would rotate with other people who help with this. You must be able to navigate stairs and carry bags of food up and down stairs. If you are able to help, please contact Nancy Bradis in the parish office 856-667-2440 or by email at parishoffice@christourlight.net.

Weddings

Please call the Parish Office at 856-667-2440 to schedule. We encourage those who have married outside the Catholic Church to call and discuss options for blessing your marriage as a Sacrament.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

To Be Faithful Witnesses

Almighty God,
you reveal yourself
in the ordinary moments of our day.
Help us to open our eyes and our hearts to your presence
that we may lead others to you.

May we boldly and joyfully proclaim our love for you,
in our words and actions.
Grant us the grace and the wisdom
to be your faithful witnesses,
unafraid to be called disciples.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Do You Love Me?

Today's readings; Acts 5:27–32, 40b–41; Psalm 30:2, 4, 5–6, 11–12, 1; Revelation 5:11–14; John 21:1–19. In the post-resurrection stories, Jesus shows up in ordinary places. Encountering his disciples and friends at routine tasks, he draws them into an extraordinary event and often breaks bread with them, opening their eyes to God in their midst. Today, in John's account of the Gospel, Jesus watches from the shore while the disciples fish. When he directs them where to cast their net, their catch is overwhelming. Immediately, the beloved disciple recognized Jesus, responding to the abundance by saying, "It is the Lord."

Jesus invites the disciples to breakfast and afterward quizzes Peter. Three times Jesus asks, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" And to Peter's reply, Jesus says, "Feed my sheep." Peter was unsure why Jesus asked the same query thrice. Jesus, however, wanted to be sure that this apostle who had denied him three times was sure of his love.

Christ comes to us in the Scriptures and the Eucharist; he also shows up in the routines of our lives. He is found in kind words and actions of others, in prayer, and during unguarded moments of the day. He asks us the same question, "Do you love me?" Our response is found in the way we treat members of our family, neighbors, coworkers, and the marginalized.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, May 2 The Gift of Time

“Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life.” Jesus’ words invite us to consider whether our efforts are spent on what is lasting or whether time is devoted only to earthly pursuits. Where do you devote your time? How might you use it to serve and lift someone else up? Today’s readings: Acts 6:8–15; Psalm 119:23–24, 26–27, 29–30; John 6:22–29.

Tuesday, May 3 Become What You Receive

When the crowd seeks a sign, Jesus replies, “I am the bread of life.” The gift of the Eucharist, the Bread of Life, sustains and nourishes, while joining us to Christ and each other. St. Augustine directed Christians that, in receiving the Eucharist, “become what you are: the Body of Christ.” This week when you receive the Eucharist, consider how you are joined with other members of the Body of Christ. Today’s readings: 1 Corinthians 15:1–8; Psalm 19:2–3, 4–5; John 14:6–14.

Wednesday, May 4 Slow Down

Jesus tells the crowds, “I will not reject anyone who comes to me.” Can you say the same thing? Consider the people who seek your attention during the day. Do you take time for them or are you in a hurry to get on to the next thing in your life? In our need to accomplish tasks, it can be easy to miss the opportunity to take in the gifts another offers. This week slow down to appreciate the people that God sends on your path. Be open to the chance to allow another to enrich your life. Say a prayer of gratitude for the people who have accepted and made time for you. Today’s readings: Acts 8:1b–8; Psalm 66:1–3a, 4–5, 6–7a; John 6:35–40.

Thursday, May 5 The Gift of Baptism

In today’s reading from Acts, first an angel of the Lord speaks to Philip, and then the Spirit directs him. With these prompts, Philip explains the Scriptures to an individual and then baptizes him. Have you ever felt nudged to do something? That may have occurred when you had an urge to contact a person. God continues to prompt his followers. In baptism, we are claimed by God and called to serve. Pray for the grace to be open to the opportunity that may come your way today. Today’s readings: Acts 8:26–40; Psalm 66:8–9, 16–17, 20; John 6:44–51.

Friday, May 6 Real Presence

Faith is mysterious. The gift of faith is apparent in Ananias, who knows that Saul has persecuted Christians. This gift is apparent too in Saul, who regained his sight after Ananias laid hands on him. And this gift of faith allows us to believe that the real presence of Christ is in the Eucharist. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, as the priest says the Eucharistic Prayer, the substance of the bread and wine changes and becomes the Body and Blood of Christ. While participating at Mass, listen carefully to the words of consecration. Today’s readings: Acts 9:1–20; Psalm 117:1bc, 2; John 6:52–59.

Saturday, May 7 What Would You Do?

When Jesus asks, “Do you also want to leave,” Simon Peter responds, “Master, to whom shall we go?” Many of the disciples had found Jesus’ teachings hard to accept and did not believe. Today also people struggle with belief. What is your response to Jesus’ query, “Do you also want to go?” Do you acknowledge the Spirit and life in Jesus’ words? Today’s readings: Acts 9:31–42; Psalm 116:12–13, 14–1, 16–17; John 6:60–69.

Hour of Adoration

Every 3rd Wednesday of the month we will be having an hour of Adoration at 5:00 PM in the Church.

Come and experience the powerful presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. We will be using the iBreviary app during the service which can be downloaded on your cell phone either on the App Store or by going to <https://www.ibreviary.org/en/>.
