Stewardship

Everlasting Stewardship

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (REVELATIONS 22:13)

Stewardship
a way of life

This is a reminder of how we as Christian Stewards should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

Want to Talk?

Do you want to navigate disagreement in a healthier way?

Are you concerned about political polarization?

Is there a tough topic you want to bring up, but you don't want another argument?

Introducing:

Want to Talk? Communication Tools for Divided Times

Beginning this fall Christ Our Light will be sponsoring an 8 session, small group program on how we can have tough conversations on subjects that matter.

This series has been developed by JustFaith Ministries, an organization based on Catholic social teaching, which will draw on the wisdom of experts in nonviolent communication and civil dialogue. It will help us to deepen our relationships while staying true to our values, providing practical tools for navigating the political polarization of our time as well as other difficult conversations with loved ones and friends.

Additional information will be in the bulletin and on the parish website in the weeks to come. Post cards will go out to registered families. Sessions will be held both remotely and in person, during the day and in the evening. Days and times will be decided based on participants' availability. The program is open to everyone, parishioners and non-parishioners.

We believe this will be an invaluable resource to our community and hope you will consider joining. Let's Talk!

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for May 29, 2022

Luke 24:46-53

Adults:

Jesus invites us to be one with God. Name a moment when you were one with God this past week.

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Teens:

Jesus prayed for his disciples, that others might believe in him through their words. How are you spreading your belief in Jesus through your words and actions? Do others know who Jesus is by knowing you?

Children:

Jesus tells us He is always with us. Name a time this past week when you knew that God was with you in a special way.

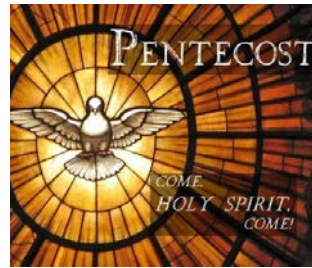

Eucharistic Ministers Needed

We are in need of Eucharistic Ministers for Barclay Rehab. This ministry usually takes place on Thursday and lasts about an hour. If interested, please contact Dorothy Habina 609-304-2070.

Christ Our Light Prayer Group

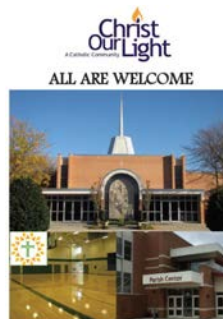

Pentecost Sunday 2022

The Christ Our Light Prayer group will be celebrating "Pentecost Sunday", on June 5th from 2:30-4PM.

We will start with the Rosary, followed by the exposition of the blessed sacrament. There will be laying on of hands and anointing with Holy Oil, for a renewed life in the Spirit. All are welcome to join us in person at church as we pray for a powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Ever Ancient, Ever New

Join us online, Wednesdays at 7PM for study, reflection, and conversation on readings from Church history. We'll look at an excerpt each week from the writings of significant writers in church history, saints, and Doctors of the Church, from the apostolic age all the way through to modern times, and journey together into communion with those who have come before us. No prior preparation is required, only a desire to learn more about our faith and connect more deeply with our tradition and with one another. Hope to see you! For Zoom link and questions please email Chris Becker, ccb138@gmail.com, or Cathy Johnson, cjohnson@christourlight.net.

LGBTQ+ Group

We are happy to report that the group working to form this group has made significant progress and hope to launch this group soon. This group is for all persons who are LGBTQ+ , their family members, friends and allies. The group is open to those 18 years and older. Look for future announcements for the launch of this new ministry. If you have any questions, please contact Al Martino at 856-235-4388 or by email at almartino08054@gmail.com.

SSJ Neighborhood Center Food Pantry

We will be collecting food for the SSJ Neighborhood Center food pantry the weekend of June 11-12. Please put your food in the alcove of the gathering space. This is what they are requesting:

jelly, canned corn, toilet paper, canned chicken, and spaghetti.

Thank you for your generosity for our sisters and brothers in need. With rising food costs, this really makes a difference in the lives of our neighbors.

SSJ Neighborhood Center Food Pantry

Mark Your Calendars! Our next delivery of casseroles to Joseph's House of Camden will be Monday morning, June 13, 2022. Our May donations included 30 casseroles, snacks, brownies, tea, sugar, creamer, drinks, socks, shoes, clothing, blankets and toiletries. Guests and staff thank you for your generosity!

As in the past, casseroles and other donations for Joseph's House should be dropped off in the Servers Room in the Ministry Center. Please put casseroles in the freezer and other items on the cart. If you can, please use the pans and lids provided for the casseroles which can be found in the lower left cabinet on the church wall behind the Welcome Desk. Mark with date prepared and main ingredients. Make sure lids are secure and tight to keep the food safe and sanitary. If lids are not available, please secure tightly with tin foil.

At this time, no coffee is needed. However, in addition to casseroles, sandwiches, snacks, water, tea, sugar and creamer and toiletries continue to be among the much needed items. For other ways to donate and support Joseph's House, go to jhoc.org/donation-hub.

AND, join us for the Joseph's House 5K Walk/Run 2022! Registration is now open. Walk, run, form or join a team or simply donate. Go to jhoc.org.

Thank you for your continued commitment to this ministry. If you have any questions, please contact Phyllis Sanders at dfcps@hotmail.com or (856-667-7064).

Item Donations for Mission to KY

Item donations for Mission to David, KY

This year's mission trip May 28-June 4 is our seventh trip to Appalachia in general and our fifth serving with St. Vincent Mission in David, KY. Our parishioners who are attending the mission are John and Gina Poserina, Leslie Skolnik, Gloria Giordano, Cathy and Paul Johnson and Pat Slater.

For the next few weekends, we will be collecting items requested by St. Vincent Mission. This year they are asking for donations of underpants, any size, any age, any gender; however, must be new. There will be a bin available in the gathering space for your donations from May 7 until May 26th. You are also welcome to donate gift cards to Walmart (not Target). Please turn those in to the parish office. Please hold our mission team in your prayers as well as the people of St. Vincent Mission and our neighbors in David, KY.

T-Shirt and Pillowcase Collection

Now that summer is here...it's time to clean out your closets! Please donate gently used T-shirts (large and X large) and pillowcases for the SSJ Neighborhood Center! These items will be transformed into reusable grocery bags for their clients! Thank you for your generosity! There are collection boxes on the counter in the gathering space at the rear of church. Thank you!

Lectors & Eucharistic Ministers Needed

Interested in volunteering for a liturgical ministry at Christ our Light? We are always on the lookout for additional Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Mass Assistants. If you're interested in volunteering, or you would like to receive more information, contact our Pastoral Associate for Worship and Music, John Vovak, at jvovak@christourlight.net.

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Promise We Cling To

Wondrous God,
you have given us much to celebrate.
Jesus' rising from the tomb
offered victory over death,
giving us hope for eternal life.
As we celebrate Jesus' returning to you,
we pray for the enlightenment
of our hearts
that we will continue to be witnesses
of Easter joy in all the places you send us.
When challenges beset us,
may we remember the promise of Jesus
to remain with us always.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Awaiting the Gift

Today's readings: Acts 1:1–11; Psalm 47:2–3, 6–7, 8–9 (6); Hebrews 9:24–28; 10:19–23 or Ephesians 1:17–23; Luke 24:46–53. Throughout these Easter weeks, the Gospels tell of the risen Jesus spending time with his disciples. As Christ prepares to return to the Father, he reminds his followers of his teachings and recalls what they have seen and heard. During these talks, Christ points out his followers' calling and helps them see that they are truly loved.

Finally, just before he is to ascend, Jesus points to Scripture: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance . . . would be preached in his name for all the nations." It would be up to these followers to preach and teach in Christ's name. They would not do that alone, for they were to await the Spirit. While awaiting the arrival of the Spirit, they praised God.

Like those disciples, we too must seek the Spirit as we act as the hands and feet of Christ in the world. In prayer, we ask for the Spirit to guide our words and our actions, for we cannot act alone while doing God's work. Only if we depend on God will others experience our deeds as filled with the love of God. Our reliance on the Spirit in the ordinary moments of our lives makes a difference. Pray for the grace to allow the Holy Spirit to live in and through you.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, May 30

Take Courage

Jesus tells his disciples, “In the world you face persecution. But take courage, I have conquered the world.” When we spread the Gospel, we do so knowing that Jesus has gone before us, and that his persecution, death, and rising, offer eternal life. We do not face the trouble in our lives by ourselves; our faith reminds us that we are never alone. Today’s readings: Acts 19:1–8; Psalm 68:2–3ab, 4–5acd, 6–7ab; John 16:29–33.

Tuesday, May 31

Blessed Encounters

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Once Mary hears about her cousin Elizabeth being with child, as she is herself, the Gospel tells us she travels in haste to be with her. Elizabeth’s greeting was both a comfort and affirmation for Mary. Today remember and pray in gratitude for the people in your life who, in times of challenge, support you. Today’s readings: Zephaniah 3:14–18a or Romans 12:9–16; Isaiah 12:2–3, 4bcd, 5–6; Luke 1:39–56.

Wednesday, June 1

What Is the Truth?

For his disciples and for us, Jesus prays, “Sanctify them in the truth.” The prayer commits us to being and saying what is true. Pray for the grace to know the truth in your life, and to be a witness of what is true—that is, every human being is created in the image of God and deserves to be treated with respect and dignity. Imagine a world that recognizes this truth. Today’s readings: Acts 20:28–38; Psalm 68:29–30, 33–35a, 35bc–36ab; John 17:11b–19.

Thursday, June 2

Being One

What would our world look like if we believed that we are all called to be one as Jesus is with his Father? In and through our baptism, we are united with God and others in our faith community, and because of this union, we are to be a witness to others. How would striving for unity with all Christians change the way you pray, the way you live, and the way you make present God’s love in our world? Today’s readings: Acts 22:30; 23:6–11; Psalm 16:1–2a and 5, 7–8, 9–10, 11; John 17:20–26.

Friday, June 3

God Is Good and Kind

One of the songs from the musical Godspell was adapted from today’s Psalm 103 “Bless the Lord, O my soul.” The song and psalm remind us to remember the goodness and kindness of God. When was the last time you paused to thank God for something good in your life? When have you felt God’s abundant kindness in your life? Today’s readings: Acts 25:13b–21; Psalm 103:1–2, 11–12, 19–20ab; John 21:15–19.

Saturday, June 4

Stories to Guide Us

Scripture is a living, breathing revelation of God’s life with humanity. Stories in the Bible are rooted in a certain time and place. But each of those stories holds a truth that is still relevant today. In our living out of our faith we continue to breathe life into the words of Scripture. Take some time soon to sit down with Scripture, discover the stories of our ancestors in faith, get to know Jesus better, and embrace the challenge of discipleship. Today’s readings: Acts 28:16–20, 30–31; Psalm 11:4, 5 and 7; John 21:20–25.

Hour of Adoration

Every 3rd Wednesday of the month we will be having an hour of Adoration at 5:00 PM in the Church.

Come and experience the powerful presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. We will be using the iBreviary app during the service which can be downloaded on your cell phone either on the App Store or by going to <https://www.ibreviary.org/en/>.
