Stewardship

Stewardship Living

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." LUKE 13:30

Stewardship a way of life Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you: How have you lived Stewardship? What have you done with the gifts I have given you? How will you respond?

Thank you for your most generous contributions of Time, Talent and Treasure to Christ Our Light.

Catholic Strong Campaign

Thank you my brothers and sisters of Christ Our Light for your generosity to the Catholic Strong Campaign.

I wanted to let you know our funds are being put to good and necessary use.

Two major projects that are almost complete or mid way through are the AC \ Heating Units in the Convent, Church Hall Way, Ministry Conference Room and Rectory. We have replaced all the units all of which were 50 + years old.

We are also midway through installing a brand new HVAC System in the school. This will replace the window units providing us much better efficiency, effectiveness, and environmental benefits.

I wanted to thank Ed Watson, parishioner and engineer consultant to the finance council who has spent countless hours on both projects volunteering all his time. God bless you Ed for all of your help.

And, again thank you to all of our parishioners for your great love of our parish. God bless you, Fr. John

Want to Talk?

Do you want to navigate disagreement in a healthier way?

Are you concerned about political polarization?

Is there a tough topic you want to bring up, but you don’t want another argument?

Introducing:

Want to Talk? Communication Tools for Divided Times

Beginning this fall Christ Our Light will be sponsoring an 8 session, small group program on how we can have tough conversations on subjects that matter.

This series has been developed by JustFaith Ministries, an organization based on Catholic social teaching, which will draw on the wisdom of experts in nonviolent communication and civil dialogue. It will help us to deepen our relationships while staying true to our values, providing practical tools for navigating the political polarization of our time as well as other difficult conversations with loved ones and friends.

Additional information will be in the bulletin and on the parish website in the weeks to come. Post cards will go out to registered families. Sessions will be held both remotely and in person, during the day and in the evening. Days and times will be decided based on participants’ availability. The program is open to everyone, parishioners and non-parishioners.

We believe this will be an invaluable resource to our community and hope you will consider joining. Let’s Talk!

This fall, the topic for the Bible study led by Dr. Jim Bridges will be a selection from the Minor Prophets, beginning with the books of Amos and Jonah. The group meets on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of each month, from 9:45-11:45 a.m. in the Parish Center (with slight changes due to holidays, etc.). The fall session begins September 17. There is a fee. Scam & Phishing Alert Parishioners around the diocese continue to receive emails and phone texts purporting to be clergy and seeking financial assistance. Unfortunately nothing can be done to stop them.

Please know that none of our parish priests or staff members will ever contact you via email (or phone) to ask that you provide them with gift cards or assist them financially in a crisis situation. If you receive an email which is seemingly being sent by a priest or staff member requesting financial assistance of any kind, please report it to the parish office immediately at 856-667-2440 or parishoffice@christourlight.net. Please also inform other parishioners in your family and neighborhood who may not see this information in the bulletin.

Youth Ministry

Junior Mission Group

Our junior mission group is having a blast this week!
Thanks Fr. John for praying with us!

Grateful to the young adults who made this happen -
Maggie Smith, Domenica Rosati and Alyna Cabrera.

Shout out to all the families this week! This happened
because of your support!

We have collaborated with the Center For Faith Justice and will spend the week in community with our brothers and sisters in Christ at -

Cathedral Kitchen,
Joseph's House,
Urban Promise,
Cherry Hill Food Pantry,
St. Bart's,
Fr. Mike's mission,
& Our own parish pantry

1. We are learning to encounter God in each person.
2. We are building fellowship.
3. We are praying for a society of love, peace and mercy.

Meet the Young Adults

Alyna a junior at Rutgers - Bio
Chem Major

Spent the summer leading youth in faith conversations.

Gifts were-

- meeting the kids from the parish learning more about why they want to join the week long mission trip itself.

- taking the kids service sites (Cherry Hill Food Pantry, Urban Promise, Joseph's House, Cathedral Kitchen)

- seeing the parish youth interact with the population
they were serving with.

- seeing the pure joy that the parish youth brought to everyone.

Domenica a junior at Rowan -
Music Major

I learned that everyone you pass by or interact with during your day is going through something different and we need to be more sensitive to this.

A blessing was getting to see the impact that my service was leaving right in front of me
while it was happening.

Bereavement Ministry

The time following a loved one’s death is often difficult for family and friends. The Bereavement Ministry is a vital ministry at Christ Our Light which provides compassionate care for those in need.

Bereavement Ministry/funeral preparation

This is a huge ministry just by volume. We typically have about 100+ funerals at Christ Our Light each year. Maybe half of them are parishioners or are related to parishioners. We get a lot of calls from funeral homes asking for us to have a funeral for someone who was Catholic and did not have a home parish. All are welcome, alive or deceased. Trained bereavement ministers meet with family members to plan the funeral for their deceased loved one.

Cards that are sent out throughout the year for those who have lost a loved one

We send out cards on the first anniversary of loss. We include a Care Note on the first anniversary of your loss. We also send out a card prior to Christmas for those who lost a loved one since last Christmas along with a Care Note about getting through the holidays when you’ve lost a loved one. The bereavement ministers sign the card for the families they ministered to.

November 2 Mass of Remembrance

This is a lovely memorial, and the friends and family members who come really appreciate it. Bereavement volunteers also help with this Mass. A letter goes out to all those who lost a loved one since the last November 2 Mass. Bereavement ministers follow up with a phone call to all the families they ministered to the previous year.

Care Notes

We have a Care Notes rack. We try to include ones for mental health, spiritual life, ones for teens, family issues and issues of loss.

Remembrance for those who have lost a child

Oct. 15 is the international day for those who have lost a child. Our tradition has been to put out a tablecloth and people can put the name or other remembrance of a child or grandchild they have lost. We don’t make any distinction if the child died pre-birth, after birth, as a child or even an adult child of someone. Losing a child is losing a child. This cloth is put on the altar for the month of November as we remember All Souls.

Some other aspects of bereavement ministry include helping people find an appropriate grief support group if they are looking for one. This may include making them aware of TLA (To Live Again), a support group specifically for widows and widowers or helping them find a support group from another loss through Grief Share (griefshare.org) or through services provided by one of our local hospices. This may also include a referral to one of our Stephen ministers.

If anyone is interested in learning more about this ministry, please contact Pat Slater in the parish office. Training is done online with a session that lasts two hours. Trainees then shadow experienced bereavement ministers until they feel comfortable in that role. A special thank you to our present bereavement ministers: Terry August, Sister Mary Berryman, Susan Cappuccio, Frances Estella, Kay Giampetro, Sister Dorothy Giloley, Sue Schirmer, Pat Vigna, Sister Peggy Devlin, Carla Clarke, Carol Maglione, Carolyn Taylor
