Diocesan Changes to Mass Schedule and Mass Intentions

My Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

You may have already heard through conversation or reading the recent edition of The Catholic Star Herald that all parishes are required to reduce the number of weekend masses by decree of the bishop by July 1, 2023. We need to reduce our Weekend Masses (Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses) from a total of five to a total of four. In the coming months, we will decide on a revised mass schedule that will best serve our parish community. I have already begun initial conversations with the staff and pastoral council which will continue. More information will follow on the process and ways to offer your thoughts to the discussion.

While the changes will not take effect until next summer, we plan to decide on a new mass schedule within the next six months. Bishop Sullivan has reminded all parishes of the diocesan protocol regarding the number of Mass intentions permitted. Our current practice, similar to multiple parishes in the diocese, will have to change as we may only have two Masses per week which have multiple mass intentions. As of now, we can only accept mass intention requests until April 2, 2023 and only on open dates as we can no longer accept multiple Mass intentions. We will reopen the Mass Intentions Book for masses after that date once we have determined the new Mass Schedule. We will provide plenty of advanced notice when parishioners can request masses after April 2, 2023. When the Mass Intentions Book reopens, there will be a limit on the number of mass intentions a person can request per year to allow everyone an opportunity to make a request for a Mass intention. Again, more details will follow as we process the above and determine a fair and equitable plan.

Please find below Bishop Sullivan's Decree as found in the Catholic Star Herald.

I thank you for your continued love and support of our Parish,

God bless you, Fr. John

Bishop Sullivan decrees adjustments to Mass scheduling

By Staff Reports August 16, 2022

CAMDEN – With an eye to the future, Bishop Dennis Sullivan has decreed a change in how parish Masses are scheduled.

In an Aug. 8 decree, and companion letter to pastors, Bishop Sullivan explained that during the past several years, a frequent topic of discussion at meetings of the Presbyteral Council (the diocesan priest council that advises the bishop) has been the need to reduce the number of Masses celebrated in parishes across the Diocese. Realizing that pastors are often reticent to change Mass schedules for fear of upsetting parishioners, Bishop Sullivan chose to decree the course of action, which mandates orienting parish Mass schedules based solely on parish priest availability, to take effect no later than

July 1, 2023.

“In explaining this mandate, I first wish to address the concern I have of ‘quantity’ over ‘quality,’” the Bishop wrote in his letter. “In some parishes, Masses are multiplied for the convenience of the lay faithful who attend in small numbers compared to the size of the church building. This requires spreading precious parish resources for good liturgy (both human and financial) across the entire schedule.” Bishop Sullivan reasoned instead that consolidating Masses to increase attendance will allow pastors to more effectively devote the liturgical resources including music, art, environment and other components “that make a parish liturgy the rich ‘source and summit’ of Christian life that [it] is intended to be.”

Bishop Sullivan explained further that this is a decision for the near future of the Church in South Jersey, where “much sooner than later, most of diocesan parishes will be served by one priest.” While he knows the Diocese is currently blessed to have healthy retired priests who are faithful in assisting parishes with Sunday Masses, Bishop Sullivan also recognizes their numbers are dwindling as is the overall number of priests serving in the Diocese of Camden.

“All of our priests continue to advance in years. Prayers for vocations and an active ministry in every parish to raise up vocations are absolutely necessary, but it takes nearly a decade for a vocation to lead to ordination. As such, we will have an unavoidable gap that requires a reduction in parish Mass schedules.”

In the letter, Bishop Sullivan asks pastors to work together with those of nearby parishes to make sure Masses are provided to the regional faithful. “Parishes need to cooperate with one another for the benefit of all. Gone are the days when we can simply be parochial, looking only at the needs of our own people. I say this because even daily Masses need adjustments. It makes no sense for adjacent parishes to each have multiple daily Masses.”

He noted that the close proximity of most parishes to each other provides many options for participating in a daily Mass.

Bishop Sullivan further decreed that it is inappropriate for parishes to conduct Eucharistic Services in the absence of a priest on weekdays. Those who wish to receive Holy Communion should participate at Mass in a neighboring parish. “It is perfectly legitimate for Mass not be celebrated on a given day if the pastor is taking his day off.”

While the decree states that Mass schedules do not need to be finalized until July 1, 2023, he advised pastors to begin planning for the new schedules immediately.

Stewardship

Stewardship Possessions

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." LUKE 14:33

Stewardship a way of life When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, we as Stewards must renounce the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Catechetical Sunday

PLEASE JOIN US FOR CATECHETICAL SUNDAY – SEPT. 18, 11:00AM MASS

"THIS IS MY BODY GIVEN FOR YOU" LUKE 22:19

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 18, and the theme is "This is my body given for you." Those who the parish community has designated to serve a catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for the ministry.

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. The term "Eucharist" originates from the Greek word eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving. In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present – body, blood, soul, and divinity – under the appearance of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist

Parish Picnic

Sunday, September 18th
after 11:00 AM Mass

Want to Talk?

Do you want to navigate disagreement in a healthier way?

Are you concerned about political polarization?

Is there a tough topic you want to bring up, but you don't want another argument?

Introducing:

Want to Talk? Communication Tools for Divided Times

Beginning this fall Christ Our Light will be sponsoring an 8 session, small group program on how we can have tough conversations on subjects that matter.

This series has been developed by JustFaith Ministries, an organization based on Catholic social teaching, which will draw on the wisdom of experts in nonviolent communication and civil dialogue. It will help us to deepen our relationships while staying true to our values, providing practical tools for navigating the political polarization of our time as well as other difficult conversations with loved ones and friends.

Additional information will be in the bulletin and on the parish website in the weeks to come. Post cards will go out to registered families. Sessions will be held both remotely and in person, during the day and in the evening. Days and times will be decided based on participants' availability. The program is open to everyone, parishioners and non-parishioners.

We believe this will be an invaluable resource to our community and hope you will consider joining. Let's Talk!
