Understanding the Mass

Part 2

The Liturgy of the Word

The Lectionary

At the Second Vatican Council, the Lectionary was developed based on studies that had been made of the early Church. Christians in the first centuries after Christ adapted the Jewish synagogue service for the celebration of the Eucharist. Like their Jewish elders, the Church chose continuous readings from the Law and the Prophets adding to them the letters of Paul and the stories of Jesus found in the Gospels.

Certain readings were assigned to particular festive celebrations or to places of pilgrimage commemorating the life of Christ.

The current Lectionary provides a continuous reading of the Sacred Scriptures—a three-year cycle for Sundays and a two-year cycle for week days. Each year of the Sunday cycle focuses on a particular Gospel (Matthew—A; Mark—B; and Luke—C). Passages from the Gospel of John appear at different times in all three years.

You may realize that the first readings and responsorial psalms were selected to highlight some aspect of the Gospel for the day. The second readings are generally a continuous reading from a particular letter of Saint Paul or another of the pastoral letters. During the Easter Season, the first reading comes from the Acts of the Apostles and the second reading sometimes from the Book of Revelation.

The Ministry of Lector

The Lector or Reader has a vital role in the Liturgy of the Word. He or she is charged with the responsibility of proclaiming the Word of God. As such, they must be excellent readers who study the Scriptural texts and prepare to proclaim them by practicing. Since the Church teaches that it is Christ who speaks to us in the Word, all in the assembly should be able to hear and understand the readings when proclaimed without having to rely on reading a written text.

What is the Ambo?

The ambo is the place from which the readings, the responsorial psalm, the Gospel and homily are proclaimed. The Ambo is the Altar of the Word. It is to be substantial in nature and similar in design to the altar and sanctuary furniture and distinguished from a lectern or podium from which announcement are made or songs are led.

Silence is Key

The General Instructions of the Roman Missal encourage moments of silence after each reading so as to promote prayer and meditation through which each listener may hear the voice of the Lord. We must remember that we are not listening to “historical” narratives—the Lord is speaking to us today and now in this very moment.

The First Reading

As noted earlier, the first reading is taken from the Jewish Scriptures—the Law, Prophets, Wisdom Literature or the Historical Books. This reading usually foreshadows in some way the text of the Gospel to be read at the same Mass. In this way, the assembly comes to know that God has worked His salvation through history—in real people, like us.

During the Easter Season, the First Reading is taken from a continuous reading of the Acts of the Apostles so that we recall how the Holy Spirit gathered people of many languages and backgrounds into the community of the Church.

The Responsorial Psalm

The Psalms are the Hymn Book of the Church and in them are expressed the spectrum of human emotions. They are used in the context of the Liturgy of the Word to help us realize that, through generations, believers have sung these words making of them their own prayer to God...i.e. the Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

Understanding the Mass: The Liturgy of the Word

The Second Reading

The second reading is usually taken from one of the Letters of Saint Paul or another of the Pastoral Letters of the New Testament. While the second reading does not intentionally connect to the first reading or the Gospel, it describes for us the wisdom offered by the Church's early pastors to their communities which, like ours today, struggled to understand how to apply Christian teachings to daily life. The response to both the first and second reading is: Thanks be to God—as we praise and thank God for speaking to us.

The Gospel Acclamation

The “Alleluia” which is sung during most of the liturgical year is not just a song—it is an action of the assembly by which we stand to welcome Christ, present in the Good News, with great joy. This acclamation is so important that the Roman Missal requires that it must always be sung, not recited.

During the Season of Lent, the Alleluia is not sung in anticipation of its announcing the Resurrection at Easter when of necessity the Alleluia is sung repeatedly. In Lent, a phrase praising Christ present in the Gospel are sung.

Alleluia!

The Proclamation of the Gospel

So important is the Proclamation of the Gospel that it is surrounded by rituals which are outlined below:

Change in Posture—with the singing of the Gospel Acclamation, the assembly stands. Standing is always a sign of the Resurrection and invites us to actively listen to the Words of the Gospel.

The Opening Dialogue—the deacon or priest proclaiming the Gospel informs us that it is Christ who speaks to us directly. The Lord be with you. And with your spirit (words addressed to Christ). A reading from the holy gospel according to N. Glory to you, O Lord (notice the you is likewise addressed to Christ). Christ then speaks to us today and now.

The Sign of the Cross—the act of making the sign of the cross three times (forehead, lips and breast) is a ritual gesture that we don't think about but it imitates what the deacon or priest does as they pray: “May the Lord be in my mind, on my lips and in my heart that I may worthily proclaim the holy gospel.” Proclaim it in word and deed today and throughout the week.

The Book of the Gospels—The Gospels are so precious that they are collected in a Book separate from the other readings. The Gospels are of primary importance in the life of a Christian and are the lens through which we interpret all of the Sacred Scriptures. The Book of the Gospels may be highly decorated or be encased in a decorative cover.

The Gospel Procession—so important is the proclamation of the Gospel that the Book itself is carried with honor and dignity from the altar to the ambo. Like all processions, this is a moment for the assembly to be unified in its focus.

Other Reverences at the Gospel—the Book of the Gospel and proclamation of the Gospel are revered by being accompanied by candles, and on special occasions, by the use of incense. In addition, the page on which the Gospel is recorded is reverently kissed by the deacon, priest or bishop. And when the bishop presides at liturgy, he may bless the assembly with the Book of the Gospels after the proclamation of the Gospel.

The Proclamation—the words of Christ spoken to the assembly are generally proclaimed in spoken word. However, on special occasions, the words are sung to highlight their importance and to encourage attentive listening by the assembly.

The Homily

After the proclamation of the Gospel, the presider is charged with the responsibility of addressing the assembly—connecting the words proclaimed to the Christian life. Homilies require preparation but the faithful need to remember that not all priests and deacons are gifted orators. The homily is not intended to be entertainment, it is a serious call to believers encouraging them to live the Gospel.

The Profession of Faith

Again, the Church proclaims its unity by together stating what we believe in common.

The Prayer of the Faithful

The most immediate response to hearing the Word of God proclaimed and restating the tenets of our Faith is through the action of prayer. These Universal Prayers are not announcements, they are prayers offered for the Church in general, civil authorities, for common needs, for the poor, the sick and for those who have died.

Stewardship

Faithful Stewardship

"...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..." 2 TIMOTHY 4:2

Stewardship
a way of life

It is not always convenient to be a good Steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a Stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He never said that we would have an easy life. Rather, He called us to be faithful!

NEEDED: Volunteers for Visits to Homebound Parishioners

We need additional EMs for Home Visits to Sick and Homebound Parishioners on Sunday morning or mid-week... only once a month

The ministry of visiting homebound parishioners continues to expand as the Pandemic becomes normative and we need your help... only once a month.

WE WILL TRAIN YOU IF YOU ARE NOT AN EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF THE EUCHARIST, and you do not need to minister on the altar, you can focus on serving the homebound

There are 5 Eucharistic Ministers on each of the five Sunday teams. One member of each team visits 2-3 parishioners each week. Each person has an assigned week of the month and visits on that one day per month. The 5th team member is a "substitute" for that team and for the occasional "5th week" when it occurs. The mid-week team has a less formal schedule.

If interested, please call George Sundell at 856-755-0174 or email to GSundell1@gmail.com

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for October 16, 2022

Luke 18: 1-8

Adults:

Prayer can be a strengthening practice in our spiritual lives. Can you explain a time where prayer has helped?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

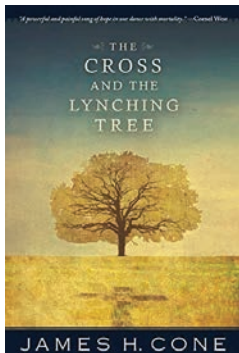

Teens:

Prayer is a way we stay in touch with God in our daily life. When you speak to God, what do you pray for?

Children:

What is something you could pray to God for?

Christ Our Light Book Group

Grandparent Ministry

Welcome Tea

Are you curious about the grandparent ministry? You are cordially invited to come to the Grandparent Ministry Welcome Tea.

October 18th at 1:00 PM

St. Mary Room in the Parish Center

Hope to see you there!

Grandparent Ministry

At Christ Our Light bereavement ministers play a critical role in letting parishioners know we are with them at a time of loss. Bereavement ministers meet with families to help them plan the funeral for their loved ones. They also help out at the annual November 2 All Souls Mass of remembrance and provide support for those experiencing loss.

Formation for this ministry includes a one hour class followed by the opportunity to shadow experienced bereavement ministers until you feel comfortable in this ministry. If you are interested in becoming a bereavement minister, please contact Pat Slater in the parish office 856-667-2440 x. 327 or by email at pslater@christourlight.net.

MOCHA

Calling all MOCHA (Mothers of Children who have Autism) out there!

Come and join in prayer and conversation about the struggles, realities, and laughter of being a MOCHA. Meetings will be held the 4th Tuesday of the month in the St. John Room of the Parish Center, 7-8:30 PM. Light refreshments will be served each month. For more information, contact Mary Foley, 856-770-4474, 4girliewhirlies@gmail.com

Ministry Spotlight: Welcome Committee Ministry

The members of this ministry are usually the first contacts new families have with our community.

The committee really has two main goals. One is to ensure that all new families are made to feel welcome and are encouraged to be an active part of the community by being contacted by a fellow parishioner. The other is to “staff” the Welcome Desk before and after each Mass. The person responsible for being at the desk would be available to answer general questions, take messages for the office, and provide feedback.

It is also important that all parishioners are greeted with a simple “hello” or “good morning” or “good evening” at all our Sunday liturgies.

Contact Process:

1. After a family registers and their info is entered into our database, a welcome letter from Fr. John is sent to the new family's home.
2. Prior to the pandemic, the list of new families would be divided among the ministry members. Each new family would receive either a phone call or an email welcoming them to the community, asking about their families and telling them about some activities and opportunities that the family might be interested in joining. We always provided our email address or phone number. We encouraged the family to stop by the Welcome Desk and introduce themselves after Mass.
3. We had “goody” bags for everyone who stopped by. We always included a ministry booklet, temporary envelopes, coffee mugs, and a few other items.

Team Composition

The team is made up of parishioners who were comfortable making phone calls or sending emails and others who enjoyed staffing the desk, greeting parishioners, and answering questions.

The Future for this Ministry

We are looking for new and also returning members for this wonderful outreach ministry.

Please contact Amelia Conte by phone at 856-667-2440, ext. 338 or by email at aconte@christourlight.net to become involved and how to get started.

Open Heart Centering Prayer

Our next meeting will be Saturday,
October 22nd at 10:00 AM

With continual demands for our attention, it is that much more important to stop and take time for quiet prayer. Join us for this contemplative group prayer experience. Parish Center San Lorenzo Room 2nd & 4th Saturdays. If you have any questions, please contact Anne Landau at alan-dau_h@verizon.net.

Men's Prayer Group

Come check out our Men's Group. It is about each man supporting one another to become a transformed man of God; a better person, husband, father, partner, son, brother, and friend. Our next monthly meeting is taking place Sunday, October 29th at 6:00 AM in the St. Lorenzo Room. This group is open to all men age 18 and over. All races, creeds, sexual orientations, and levels of church participation are invited.

Elementary Faith Formation

First Reconciliation Prep

Families preparing their children to celebrate the sacraments of Reconciliation for the first time attend special events outside of the classroom. The children and their parents participated in an opening prayer service, a lesson from the textbook “The Gift of Reconciliation”, reinforcement hands on activities. We ask the COL parish community to keep them in prayer.

A Prayer for Youth & Young Adults

Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, to you we turn in humble prayer.

Look with favor upon all young people,
bearers of hope for the Church and the world.

Jesus Christ, companion
of youth and young adults,

bless the paths of discovery and discernment,
through times of joy and experiences of hardship,
with the constant love and support of your Church.

Jesus Christ, alive in the hearts of all your people,
grant that we may

“journey together, young and old...

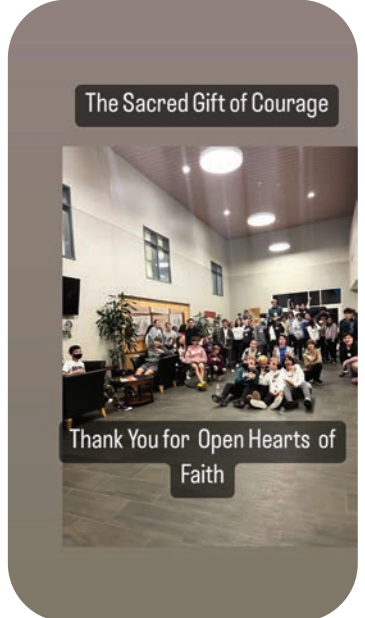

to nourish our enthusiasm, cause dreams to emerge, awaken prophecies and enable hope to blossom.” *

Jesus Christ, Redeemer of all humankind, open our hearts to encounter all young people,
to accompany and be in community together,
and as one Church, embark upon our holy mission.

Jesus Christ, in the company of the Father and the Holy Spirit, graciously hear our prayer
and be with us forevermore.

Amen.

Justice & Community Outreach

Upcoming Events for Justice & Outreach

Oct 22- To Hunger for Justice (9 am – 2 pm)

This workshop being held at Holy Family Parish will examine the state of hunger both domestically and globally and also look at long-term solutions to ending hunger. There is no charge for admission except to bring one non-perishable food item to be donated to a food pantry.

Lunch will be provided. Register at Camdendiocese.org/HFJ (Just a side note: Pat Slater is on the committee and would love a good representation from Christ Our Light)

Oct. 22- Nov. 1 International Day for Those Who Have Lost a Child

As we have done in the past, we will have a cloth in the gathering space to commemorate children who have been lost-before birth, as infants, or even as adults. You are welcome to commemorate these children by writing their names, a message or a symbol on this cloth. This cloth will be placed on the altar for the month of November.

October 30- Sandwich making

Sandwich making will take place from 8 am – 11 am in the parish center. You are also welcome to drop off individual snacks like granola bars or chips as well as fresh fruit and bottled water.

November 2- Mass of Remembrance

Those of those who have lost someone this past year will receive a letter of invitation to this special Mass. However, everyone is invited to come to this beautiful memorial Mass.

November 7- 18- Collection of turkeys and hams

We will begin accepting turkeys and hams for Thanksgiving beginning November 7. These can be put in the freezer in the servers' closet. If you need a turkey/Thanksgiving basket, please contact the parish office. All requests are confidential.

Month of November - we will be accepting applications for Adopt-a-Family. More to come closer to November.

November 19-20- Fair Trade Festival

Held in parish center and gym. Saturday, Nov. 19th, from 8 am – 6 pm. Sunday, Nov. 20th from 8 am – 2 pm. Great opportunity to find great holiday gifts and help farmers and artisans from around the world.

Joseph's House Casseroles

Mark Your Calendars! Our next delivery of casseroles to Joseph's House of Camden will be Monday morning, October 17, 2022.

Casseroles and other donations for Joseph's House should be dropped off in the Servers Room in the Ministry Center. Please put casseroles in the freezer and other items on the cart. If you can, please use the pans and lids provided for the casseroles which can be found in the lower left cabinet on the church wall behind the Welcome Desk. Mark with date prepared and main ingredients. Make sure lids are secure and tight to keep the food safe and sanitary. If lids are not available, please secure tightly with tin foil. See the Joseph's House Wishlist for other much needed items. Thank you for your continued commitment to this ministry. If you have any questions, please contact Phyllis Sanders at dfcps@hotmail.com or (856-667-7064).
