Understanding the Mass

Part 4

The Eucharistic Prayer

Lift Up Your Hearts

The Eucharistic Prayer begins with a dialogue which describes the action to come—it is right and just that we should lift up our hearts to Lord and give thanks. The word Eucharist is derived from the Greek, meaning “to give thanks”. The series of prayers that follow this dialogue are central to the action of the Mass, but are all too often “missed” by those gathered whose minds tend to drift as the priest prays.

Hutzpah!

Before looking at the parts of the Eucharistic Prayer, it is important to know that they are derived from the traditional Jewish table prayers recited at the Passover and at the weekly Sabbath meal. The Jewish people prayed with attitude—with hutzpah. They praised God for his actions throughout history beginning with Creation and concluding with the present day. They thanked God for redeeming them through Exodus and with firm faith and hutzpah they would ask (petition) God to do it all over again for them today!

The Preface

At Mass the Preface, which is specific to the particular celebration (the liturgical season or feast) narrates the great saving deeds of God through our history which includes what he has done for the Jewish people. It reminds us that Jesus is our Exodus—that in and through him, his life, death and resurrection, and his sending the Holy Spirit (the Paschal Mystery) we have been redeemed and our sins forgiven. Catholics should listen to these words and with hutzpah ask God to once again, here and now—today realize our redemption by our participation in these sacred mysteries.

The Sanctus

This song of the angels found in the Book of the Prophet Isaiah recounts the prophet’s vision of God’s throne located in the Temple. Isaiah saw—the glory of God represented by the train of his garment and a cloud of incense filling the Temple—all of heaven and earth—every nook and cranny. To this is added, from Saint Matthew’s Gospel, the words shouted at Jesus as he entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday—hosanna in the highest. “Hosanna” is an expression of praise and rejoicing addressed to the one who saves. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord reminds us that the Son of God deigned to descend from the glory of heaven; that he entered into the Holy City of Jerusalem to suffer and die for us; and that in this Eucharist, he comes under the form of bread and wine to save us today.

It is with hutzpah that we should sing this hymn, our response to the Preface, and recount the great love that God has for us in sending his son redeem us.

Kneeling

The bishops of the United States requested and received an indult from the Holy See that has the faithful kneel from the end of the Sanctus until the Great Doxology. This change in position reminds us that we come humbly before God as we silently join the priest in prayer—attentively listening to the words of the Eucharistic Prayer. In doing so, the sacred actions at the altar also transform the hearts of the faithful gathered uniting them as the Body of Christ.

The First Epiclesis (Ehp—eh—clee—sis)

The words prayed by the priest after the Sanctus acknowledge the trinitarian nature of God who is indeed holy. It is God who gives life and holiness to us and who gathers us from the corners of the world inviting us to make a continuous sacrifice from the rising of the son to its setting.

Then extending his hands over the bread and wine, the priest calls down the Holy Spirit by whose power these gifts (and us) will be transformed—a divine, not a human, action.

Understanding the Mass: The Eucharistic Prayer

The Institution Narrative

Faithful to the Lord's command at the Last Supper, "Do this in memory of me," the Eucharistic Prayer continues with the priest narrating, in word and ritual, what Jesus did on the night before he suffered. The telling of this story and the work of the Holy Spirit consecrates the bread and wine which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

Part of the ritual action has the priest elevate the Body of Christ (Host) and the Blood of Christ (Chalice). This dates back to the medieval Church when the faithful rarely received Holy Communion and therefore at least wanted to see the Host and Chalice. The priest then reverently genuflects in humble adoration and while not required, bells are often rung at this moment to add solemnity and too call the faithful's attention to this moment. In the past, the church's main tower bell would also be rung so that the faithful outside could pause for a moment of silent adoration.

The Anamnesis (A-nahm-knee-sis)

The Memorial Acclamation is a response made by the faithful to what has just happened at the consecration. Anamnesis is a fancy Greek word that simply means "remembrance". This moment of remembering, however, has a triple significance. According to St. Thomas Aquinas, "The Eucharist (i) looks to the past, commemorating the passion of Christ... (2) it looks to the present, signifying the unity of the Church...and (iii) it looks to the future, prefiguring our enjoyment with God in heaven (Summa IIIa 73.4).

The Offering and Second Epiclesis

As the Eucharistic Prayer continues, the Body and Blood are offered to God—these gifts given to us and representing us—help us to learn to offer ourselves by joining our lives to Christ's. He emptied himself for our salvation and calls us to similarly pour out our lives for others. Again, the priest calls down the Holy Spirit to form us into the Church—"grant that we, who are nourished with the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with the Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ."

The Intercessions

Again, like the prayers offered by the Jewish people at Passover and Sabbath table, the Eucharistic Prayer contains specific petitions for the Church, the Pope, the bishops, for the members of the Church, for the dead, and for our future joining with Christ and the communion of saints in eternal glory.

The Great Doxology

Elevating the Host and Chalice, the priest says or sings a hymn that sums up what has just happened in the Eucharistic Prayer. We have recounted God's great love for us in redeeming us through his Son and sending the Holy Spirit to make us into his holy people. It is a recognition that everything we have is graciously given to us by our loving God. Our response in one word is profound—"Amen"—a word that means "I believe." All glory and honor are yours, for ever and ever.

About the Eucharistic Prayers

The Church in the United States has ten different Eucharistic Prayers to choose from. However, most often we hear one of the four traditional prayers.

Eucharistic Prayer I is called the Roman Canon and was exclusively used from the time of the Council of Trent (mid-16th C) until the Second Vatican Council—it is rooted in the tradition of the ancient Church at Alexandria in Egypt.

Eucharistic Prayer II (most people's favorite since it is the shortest) is attributed to a 3rd C Roman priest named Hippolytus...but has its roots in the tradition of the ancient Church at Antioch in Turkey.

Eucharistic Prayers III and IV were composed during and after the Second Vatican Council but are likewise patterned after the prayers found in Antioch in Turkey. Eucharistic Prayer IV is unique because it comes with its own Preface meaning that its use is restricted to Ordinary Time on days not commemorating a saint or feast.

Other Eucharistic Prayers were also composed in the years after the Second Vatican Council—including those for Masses with Children; Masses of Reconciliation; and others adopted from other countries and focused on other needs.

Stewardship

Stewards Sacrifice

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling his Stewards to be more generous with their financial resources and possessions?

NEEDED: Volunteers for Visits to Homebound Parishioners

We need additional EMs for Home Visits to Sick and Homebound Parishioners on Sunday morning or mid-week... only once a month

The ministry of visiting homebound parishioners continues to expand as the Pandemic becomes normative and we need your help...only once a month.

WE WILL TRAIN YOU IF YOU ARE NOT AN EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF THE EUCHARIST, and you do not need to minister on the altar, you can focus on serving the homebound

There are 5 Eucharistic Ministers on each of the five Sunday teams. One member of each team visits 2-3 parishioners each week. Each person has an assigned week of the month and visits on that one day per month. The 5th team member is a "substitute" for that team and for the occasional "5th week" when it occurs. The mid-week team has a less formal schedule.

Mass of Remembrance

Mass of Remembrance

We will be celebrating our annual Mass of Remembrance on Nov. 2 at 7:00 pm. The families whose loved ones were buried from Christ Our Light have all received letters of invitation to this Mass. However, we know that some parishioners lost loved ones who were not buried from our church. You, too, are invited to this Mass. As you enter the gathering space, look for a bereavement minister who will give you a card to write the name of your deceased loved one. When the person's name is read, you are welcome to come forward to light a candle in their memory. If you have any questions, please contact the parish office.

My Journey to Joining the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre

My Journey to Joining the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre

Deacon Joe Seaman

On October 15, 2022, I was invested into the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre with the title of Knight. The historical roots of the Order date to 1099 A.D. with the creation of a community of lay and religious people to care for the sacred places in the Holy Land - especially the site of Jesus' tomb - the Holy Sepulchre. This devotion to the Holy Sepulchre is visible in the Order's emblem - the Jerusalem Cross - a reminder of the five wounds of Jesus. The knights of the Order protected the religious who were ministering at the sacred sites as well as the pilgrims who were visiting. The knights took vows of poverty and obedience and lived in community. This spiritual underpinning of the Order has been a source for its renewal and reorganization through the ages as it continues to serve the Church with a focus on the needs of the Christians and sacred places in the Holy Land.

It is the lived spirituality of the Order that attracted me to it. Members of the Order live in solidarity with Christians in the Holy Land. Palestinian Christians have a faith-lineage extending to the first followers of Jesus. Despite this rich legacy, they struggle to survive in their homeland. They are a religious minority who routinely face persecution due to their faith. They exist on the margins of their society with the outside world not noticing their challenges. The Order supports education, health care, meal programs and employment opportunities. Palestinian Christians have shared the hope they sense due to the presence of the Order. They feel that they are "seen" – that they are not alone in their challenges.

This truly touches my heart because it reminds me of our parish's mission of presence to the small Catholic Mayan community in La Puerta, Guatemala. While the Mayan community tends to be described as reserved and introverted, the smiles and hugs we receive each year attest to the meaning and importance of our relationship with them. I have the same sense regarding the Order of the Holy Sepulchre.

It is this perspective that provides context for me as I encounter the pageantry of the

Joe and Mary Beth Seaman

Order. For without context, it may appear rather pretentious - the mantles (capes), berets, veils, tuxedos and evening gowns. The garments and rituals speak of an Order steeped in tradition - the tradition of a committed community of Christians seeking to live the Gospel for hundreds of years. The people I have encountered in the Order are genuine, humble, and deeply committed to helping others. They are a witness and a voice for Christians lacking agency in the lands where Jesus walked and ministered. They are a resource focused on preserving the sacred sites associated with the life and death of Jesus. I am honored that Bishop Sullivan sponsored me to be one more voice.

Youth Ministry Reflections

Here are some faithful reflections being discussed at YFF this season. God's richest blessings!

What is something I am most grateful for?

I am grateful for being able to sing with a good voice. I show appreciation by using it. I am in the Philadelphia Boys Choir. I try to audition for most solos. I also sang with Philly Pops and sang a solo last year at their Christmas concert. I also take voice lessons. When I go to church, I am up in the choir loft with my mother, who is the church singer (at St. Mary's in Gloucester City). She asks me to sing with her and I do. I want to use this gift that God gave me to show I am grateful for it.

Carmelo Carino, 7th Grade

Why Do I Continue with my Faith Formation?

I do this because I get to be true to myself and others I continue to live out my faith by telling other about Jesus' teachings. I also share daily- Where I have I noticed God's presence in my life. I notice God's presence often when I read a book to my grandmother. It makes me feel really good.

Chris Chase, 9th Grade

What Do I Receive From Youth Meets?

- Leadership opportunities
- Continued Faith dialogue with my church community.
- Prayer and Quiet time at church.

Cherry Hill Food Pantry

Semi-annual Collection

Cherry Hill Food Pantry

As you know, Christ Our Light is one of the churches which supports the Cherry Hill Food Pantry. We support the Cherry Hill Food Pantry by furnishing volunteers several times a year. We also support the CHFP through an annual donation from our congregation. In the past, we have also supported them through several food collections during the year. However, their biggest need is money. Presently, the CHFP is working to create a new parking lot. The parking lot will allow the CHFP to return to the food distribution model which allows clients to come in and shop for the food they need and like. The estimated cost of the parking lot is $250,000. For the next few weeks, we will have envelopes at all the church doors. If you would like to make a donation, please put your donation in the envelope and put it in the regular offertory collection. Checks should be made out to the Cherry Hill Food Pantry (or CHFP). The CHFP is providing food to between 160-180 households per week. With rising food costs, this is an invaluable service. Thank you for your generosity.

Ever Ancient, Ever New

Join us online, Wednesdays at 7PM for study, reflection, and conversation on readings from Church history. We'll look at an excerpt each week from the writings of significant writers in church history, saints, and Doctors of the Church, from the apostolic age all the way through to modern times, and journey together into communion with those who have come before us. No prior preparation is required, only a desire to learn more about our faith and connect more deeply with our tradition and with one another. Hope to see you! For Zoom link and questions please email Chris Becker, ccb138@gmail.com, or Cathy Johnson, cjohnson@christourlight.net.
