Understanding the Mass

Part 5

The Rite of Communion

Introduction

On the Road to Emmaus, the two disciples listened to their fellow traveler and their hearts burned within them. At table, he gave thanks and broke the bread and that action, they recognized the Risen Lord. At every Mass, we listen, we give thanks, and we share the Body and Blood of Christ so that in fact we may become what we receive.

The Lord's Prayer

The first preparation for the reception of Holy Communion is to pray the prayer that Jesus himself taught his disciples—reaffirming who we are as members of His Body.

United in prayer to “Our Father,” the community acknowledges the holiness of God’s name which should never be taken in vane (Second Commandment). It prays for the coming of the Kingdom in its fullness and that God’s will, not our own, be done on earth just as it is in heaven. The community also asks for sustenance, most especially in the daily bread of the Eucharist, and seeks forgiveness and freedom from temptation and evil.

Gestures During the Our Father

No where in the General Instructions of the Roman Missal are directions given instructing the faithful to join hands for the Our Father. In fact, the practice is discouraged for the simple reason that joining hands can be considered intimate contact that may be difficult for some who are expected to hold hands with a stranger. While not forbidden, great care should be taken not to impose the practice at Mass. In the same way, only the priest is instructed to extend his hands during the prayer.

The question “why?” should be asked when gestures not called for by the Missal are introduced.

Embolism & Doxology

The words spoken by the priest after the Our Father are called an embolism. With these words, he restates the assembly’s request for freedom from evil and sin, for relief from all distress and for peace. For all of this, we must rely upon God’s mercy, especially in this present time while we await the second coming of Christ.

The people respond with an antiphon of praise. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.

The Rite of Peace

This simple rite has been placed at various points in the Mass over the course of Church history—each with its own significance. For some time it was placed at the beginning of Mass between the Penitential Act and the Gloria as a way of signifying unity among the assembly. At other times it was placed before the Preparation of the Altar in keeping with the Scriptures that tell us to leave your gift at the altar and go first to be reconciled with your brother. It was, however, Saint Augustine who placed it where we find it today—between the Eucharistic Prayer and the Reception of Holy Communion. Here, it shows the unity of the assembly created by the Holy Spirit during the Eucharistic Prayer and which will be effected by sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ.

During this rite, the deacon or priest invites the people, let us offer each other a sign of peace. The sign given has and can be interpreted in accord with the circumstances. While a couple may wish to offer each other a kiss, a hand shake or a wave can be sufficient. People should not get upset when the person next to them does not wish to shake hands—they may be trying to preserve you from the common cold or COVID.

Fraction

There are two parts to the Fraction Rite—the breaking of the bread and the mingling of the Body with the Blood.

The Breaking of the Bread signifies that the many faithful are made one body from the one Bread of Life which is Christ. It is Christ Himself who feeds us and who is not diminished by being broken just as love given away is never lessened. We each share in the whole Christ.

Understanding the Mass: The Rite of Communion

The mingling of the Body and Blood of Christ is that moment when the priest breaks a small piece of the Host and places it into the Chalice. As he does so, he prays: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it. This action has a very long history in the Church's liturgy. In the ancient Church, the bishop alone celebrated the Sunday Mass in his church. When parishes were founded to carry out the work of the Church more locally, the pastor of every parish participated in the bishop's Mass and carried to his parish church a small fragment of the Eucharist. During Mass celebrated at the parish, this fragment was placed into the Chalice to remind all gathered that they were united to their bishop and the other parishes of the diocese. Again, emphasizing the unity of the Church.

The Agnus Dei

The Lamb of God is a 7th C addition to the Mass. Sung or recited during the Breaking of the Bread, it is an acclamation that provides the faithful another opportunity to praise God for the sacrifice of His Son, the Lamb of God, which has won for us the gift of salvation.

Quietly the priest prays: Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world, free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood, from all my sins and from every evil; keep me always faithful to your commandments and never let me be departed from you. As a sign of reverence, he genuflects.

Elevation of the Body and Blood

Having prayerfully prepared his own heart, the priest raises the Host and Chalice and proclaims: Behold the Lamb of God; behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb. The word behold or in Latin Ecce should bring to mind several Scripture passages. The first, in the Gospel of John—John the Baptist points to Jesus and says "Behold the Lamb of God." Then, also in the Gospel of John—Pontius Pilate presents Jesus to the jeering crowd saying "Behold the man!" And on Good Friday we say "Behold the wood of the cross." The word "behold" has us fix our gaze on depths of a mystery—in which is revealed God's love for us.

The only possible response—Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed. Like the many sinners Jesus welcomed to his table, so we are welcomed.

The Communion Procession and Song

As we have seen with other processions in the liturgy, the movement of the faithful towards the altar for the reception of Holy Communion has a purpose. It is not a time to greet friends and family or to contemplate the hair style or clothing of the person in front of you. It is a time to seriously reflect on what you are about to receive—the very Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Communion Song is not simply intended to cover the sound of people moving, it is to encourage contemplation on the Mystery we receive—listening to the words and signing them can help one to prepare their mind and heart to encounter the Lord who gives himself to us.

How to Receive

The Church provides two options for receiving the Body of Christ. One may receive on the tongue or in the hand. The priest, deacon or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion presents the Host and states—The Body of Christ. Names are not to be used at this moment (the Missal does not call for it) because the encounter is between the Host and communicant—not the with the minister. The communicant should loudly reply Amen! Which means I believe.

If receiving on the tongue, the communicant opens their mouth and extends their tongue onto which the minister places the Host.

If receiving in the hand, the communicant places their "writing hand" under their other hand into which the minister places the Host. Then using their "writing hand," the communicant places the Host into their mouth.

Please remember that what we receive are the Body and Blood of Christ. It is incorrect to call the Sacred Species the bread and wine and displays a level of ignorance about what is offered at this most holy time.

Return to your seat and give quiet thanks to God.

Stewardship

Stewardship Shared

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." 2 THESSALONIANS 2:16-17

There are two important lessons about Stewardship here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

NEEDED: Volunteers for Visits to Homebound Parishioners

We need additional EMs for Home Visits to Sick and Homebound Parishioners on Sunday morning or mid-week... only once a month

The ministry of visiting homebound parishioners continues to expand as the Pandemic becomes normative and we need your help... only once a month.

WE WILL TRAIN YOU IF YOU ARE NOT AN EXTRAORDINARY MINISTER OF THE EUCHARIST, and you do not need to minister on the altar, you can focus on serving the homebound

There are 5 Eucharistic Ministers on each of the five Sunday teams. One member of each team visits 2-3 parishioners each week. Each person has an assigned week of the month and visits on that one day per month. The 5th team member is a "substitute" for that team and for the occasional "5th week" when it occurs. The mid-week team has a less formal schedule.

If interested, please call George Sundell at 856-755-0174 or email to GSundell1@gmail.com

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for November 6, 2022

Luke 20: 27, 34-38

Adults:

How do you work to make God's ways manifest in the world?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Teens:

How do your daily choices show that you know you are a child of God?

Children:

What does it mean to be a child of God?

Please join us for the Youth & Young Adult Mass at 11am on Sunday November 20th. All are welcome to join us for this special celebration of young people in the Church. A light reception will follow in the school cafeteria.

Altar Servers Needed

Liturgical ministry opportunity for Middle School/High Schoolers.

Are you a new 4th grader? What about a Junior in High School? Fourth through 12th graders interested in volunteering at Church are invited to join the Altar Server ministry! Altar Servers assist Priests and Deacons during weekend Masses and special parish celebrations. Their main responsibilities include carrying the cross during the opening and closing processions, lighting and carrying liturgical fire, ringing the bells (starts at Advent), helping the Priest with the Presider book, and assisting the Deacon during communion preparation. High School students who volunteer may be eligible for service hours.

If you are interested or would like to receive more information, register on the parish website or contact Pastoral Associate for Worship and Music, John Vovak, at jvovak@christour.light.net

Coat Drive 2022

I, Jack Tartamosa, am a 2020 graduate of RCS. This year, my brothers (3rd grade) and I will be collecting coats for children, teens, and adults in need. We will be collecting new and used coats from November 1 to December 2. These coats will be going to Holy Name School in Camden. There will be a box in the RCS foyer and the ministry center of church (down the left hand hall past the bathrooms). The coats can be new or used, for any sized child or teen. If possible please wash the coats before donating them. If you have any questions please contact me, Jack Tartamosa, at jack.tartamosa@gmail.com.

to help with the distribution, please contact Pat Slater in the parish office.

Cherry Hill Food Pantry

Semi-annual Collection

Cherry Hill Food Pantry

As you know,
Christ Our Light is one of the churches which supports
the Cherry Hill Food Pantry. We support the Cherry Hill Food Pantry by furnishing volunteers several times a year. We also support the CHFP through an annual donation from our congregation. In the past, we have also supported them through several food collections during the year. However, their biggest need is money. Presently, the CHFP is working to create a new parking lot. The parking lot will allow the CHFP to return to the food distribution model which allows clients to come in and shop for the food they need and like. The estimated cost of the parking lot is $250,000. For the next few weeks, we will have envelopes at all the church doors. If you would like to make a donation, please put your donation in the envelope and put it in the regular offertory collection. Checks should be made out to the Cherry Hill Food Pantry (or CHFP). The CHFP is providing food to between 160-180 households per week. With rising food costs, this is an invaluable service. Thank you for your generosity.

Kids Alley

Kid's Alley is one of the sites we have supported on Mitzvah Day for years. This year they were not meeting on October 15, but said they could use the help on Saturday, Nov. 12, from 9:30 am - 11:00 am. Volunteers will serve breakfast items to the children participating in this program in Pennsauken. Children are welcome when accompanied by an adult they know. Masks are required. Vaccinations are not. The parish can help pay for the food. If you are interested in this service opportunity, please contact Pat Slater in the parish office 856-667-2440 x. 327 or by email at pslater@christourlight.net. We need 4-6 people for this service.

Parish Day of Prayer for Advent

Saturday, December 3

(includes lunch)
HEARING THE VOICE OF GOD

God speaks to us each and every day in the events and people we encounter as well as in our deepest feelings and most creative thoughts. Are we listening? How do we hear the voice of God in the nitty-gritty of our daily routines?

Franciscan Father Albert Haase, OFM, will help us explore practical ways we can grow in a deeper relationship with God by learning how God speaks in our everyday lives. Partially based upon Fr. Albert's bestselling book, BECOMING AN ORDINARY MYSTIC: Spirituality for the Rest of Us, these 3 presentations promise to be most helpful and worthwhile.

Registration begins 11/7. For more information, contact Cathy Johnson, cjohnson@christourlight.net, 856-667-2440, x349.

Sister of St. Joseph Annual Chance Drive

The Sisters of Saint Joseph are once again having their annual chance drive to benefit Saint Joseph Villa and their retired Sisters.

This year there are two ways to purchase chances. You can either purchase them online by going to the SSJ website: www.ssphil.org (look for SUPPORT OUR MISSION, Fund-raising Events) or enclose your check in the preprinted envelopes found in today's bulletin. Envelopes can be mailed directly, placed in the collection basket, or brought to the parish office by November 28. Either way, your name will be entered into the drawing which takes place on December 7. For more information, visit the SSJ website, call the Development Office at 800-482-6510, or see any of the Sisters here at Christ Our Light. Thank you for your continuing generosity and support. You are remembered daily in the prayers of the Sisters at the Villa.

Adopt-a-Family

Christmas may seem a long way off, but we are beginning our remote preparations for our Adopt-a-Family program. For those new to the parish, at Christmas we have several initiatives to help others in need. We have a giving tree which supports families helped through Guadalupe Family Services. We also support women who have elected not to have an abortion through our pro-life ministry. In the past we have also collected gifts for the residents at Barclay Nursing Home, but will be unable to do that this year (at their request) due to covid. At the Christmas Masses, we collect baby items which are donated to Options for Women, First Way in Collingswood and Good Counsel Home. One of the other opportunities we have for giving at Christmas is through our adopt-a-family program. Last year we were able to help 50 families with gifts and gift cards.

There are several ways to be a part of the adopt-a-family program. One way is to volunteer to adopt an entire family. You get to choose the family size that you can support. Some of these families prefer that the donor families shop for them and others prefer getting gift cards so they can shop for their children. Other families help out by not adopting an entire family, but instead, donating gift cards or checks which go into a pool which we use for these families. If you are interested in being a part of our adopt-a-family program, please contact Pat Slater in the parish office 856-667-2440 x. 327 or by email at pslater@christourlight.net. If your family is in need of being adopted this year, please contact Pat as well. All requests are confidential.
