Understanding the Mass

Part 6

The Concluding Rites

Before delving into the Concluding Rites of the Mass, we need to finish the Rite of Communion. We left off with returning to your place after receiving Holy Communion and taking a moment to give thanks to God for Gift of His Son and the salvation He won for us.

Moment of Silence

The General Instructions remind us here of the need for moments of silence in the Liturgy. As it does after the readings and homily, the Missal calls for the priest and the faithful to “spend time praying privately.” A song may be sung at this point, but the same instructions expect that it sung by the whole assembly together as a sign of the communion they now share.

The Prayer After Communion

After a suitable time of private prayer, the priest rises and invites the people to pray. According to the Missal, this prayer has a specific purpose—to pray that the Communion we have just received may bear fruit in our lives, in the Church and for the world.

The Concluding Rites

Announcements

Here is the appropriate time for making announcements. If there are relatively few, the people may remain standing or the presider may ask them to be seated. Announcements should NOT be made as part of the Rite of Communion. However, they may be made before the beginning of Mass.

The Final Blessing

Again, the priest greets the people and the deacon invites them to bow down for the blessing. This blessing may be simple—the Sign of the Cross or it may be enriched on special occasions with a longer solemn prayer of blessing or a four-fold invocation before the Sign of the Cross.

The Dismissal

After the priest makes the Sign of the Cross in blessing, the deacon announces one of several forms of the dismissal—in Latin “Ite Missa est!” Literally, “Go forth, the Mass is ended.” The Latin word “missa” gives us the name for whole Eucharistic Liturgy, the Mass. The other dismissals help us to understand that— “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord” and “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” The sense here is that we, having heard the Word of the Lord and received the Body and Blood of the Lord, are sent on mission. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that “the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (mission) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God’s will in their daily lives” (CCC 1332). Sharing the mission of Christ, we are sent to use our God-given abilities to evangelize, to comfort and to help build up the Kingdom of God.

Reverence of the Altar

The priest and deacon then moves to the altar and kiss it. This is done, as at the beginning of Mass, out of reverence for the presence of Christ who is himself the altar of sacrifice. The practice derives from the ancient Roman tradition of kissing the entrance to the pagan temples and the Roman family tradition of kissing the table when they sat down to eat. The Church “baptized” these practices by reverencing the altar, which contained a relic of a saint, with a kiss.

Concluding Procession

The priest and other liturgical ministers then gather at the foot of the altar, they genuflect in unison, and then follow the cross in procession to the outside of the church—leading the faithful in the mission to glorify the Lord with their lives.

Understanding the Mass: The Concluding Rites

The Importance of Sacred Music

"The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as a combination of sacred music and words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, no. 112). The composition and singing of inspired psalms, often accompanied by musical instruments, were already closely linked to the liturgical celebrations of the Old Covenant. The Church continues and develops this tradition: "Address . . . one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart." "He who sings prays twice" (Eph 5:19; St. Augustine, En. in Ps. 72,1:PL 36,914; cf. Col 3:16).

— Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1156

There is a great need in most American parishes to rekindle the appreciation for sacred music and communal singing. Some cultures, like the Welsh and African American, take great pride in their choral tradition. Lay people can have a great impact on the liturgy by volunteering to join the choir, serve as a cantor, or play an instrument—we are especially in need of young people willing to learn how to play the church organ. The pipe organ has pride of place among all instruments and without competent organists, the Church will lose its liturgical voice.

The liturgy requires authenticity, so the use of recorded music is not permitted. Sacred Music needs to be the product of human activity—by the use of voices and instruments.

Sacred Music is NOT a performance. In many churches the music ministry is located at the front in the hopes of encouraging the assembly to sing. However for too many, it is seen as a concert that is to be enjoyed not an aid to their participation in singing.

The Tabernacle

In the Old Testament, the People of God wandered in the desert for 40 years. During that time, God made his dwelling among them in a tent or tabernacle. The word tabernacle literally means "dwelling." And so it is in the church that the tabernacle is the place where Christ dwells in the Eucharist.

rist.

The tabernacle must be made of solid and opaque material. It must also have a locked door. In the Diocese of Camden it must also be secured by an alarm. All of this is to prevent the Eucharist from being profaned or desecrated. The Blessed Sacrament is kept in the tabernacle for two purposes: in order that the sick may receive Holy Communion, especially if they are dying; and also for private prayer—that any of us may go before the Blessed Sacrament for a time of prayer.

Liturgical Colors

The liturgical life of the Church involves the use of color to signify the meaning of particular seasons and/or celebrations. Green is worn during Ordinary Time (those weeks that are counted). Purple, a sign of penitence, is worn during Advent and Lent as the Church prepares for the important Solemnities of Christmas and Easter. It may also be worn for funerals and on days of penance. White is worn during the Christmas and Easter Seasons and on other feast days that honor Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints who are not martyrs. Red is worn at celebrations of the Passion of Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Cross and on the feast of Saints who are martyrs. Black may also be used on the occasion of Masses for the Dead and funerals.

Sacred Incense

The use of incense in ancient religious rites is well documented—to ward off evil spirits and to create a cloud of "mystery." The use of incense in the Catholic liturgy is an adaptation of these ancient uses. For Catholics, incense purifies and blesses the persons and objects that are incensed. At the same time the holy smoke lifts up to heaven and takes with it the prayers of God's people.

Candles

The use of candles in the liturgy was both practical (the need for light) and symbolic—as candles add beauty and solemnity to the Mass. They represent Christ, the Light of the World and our call to bring that light to others. They also serve as a symbol of our prayers—who hasn't lit a candle for a loved one?

Stewardship

Model Stewardship

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." 2 THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most Stewards who live a grateful and generous lifestyle, don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

HEARING THE VOICE OF GOD

God speaks to us each and every day in the events and people we encounter as well as in our deepest feelings and most creative thoughts. Are we listening? How do we hear the voice of God in the nitty-gritty of our daily routines?

Franciscan Father Albert Haase, OFM, will help us explore practical ways we can grow in a deeper relationship with God by learning how God speaks in our everyday lives. Partially based upon Fr. Albert's bestselling book, BECOMING AN ORDINARY MYSTIC: Spirituality for the Rest of Us, these 3 presentations promise to be most helpful and worthwhile.

Registration begins 11/7. For more information, contact Cathy Johnson, cjohnson@christourlight.net, 856-667-2440, x349.

Climate Change - Small Hints

Examine your trash and recycling. How much of your recycling bin is filled with paper bills? Most companies and organizations now have paperless billing/notification options. Time to make a switch.

Many people start Christmas shopping early. Consider having a discussion with family and friends about useful or needed gifts and spending limits to reduce unwanted gifts and take the focus away from consumerism. Also consider buying clothing and products made from natural materials – products made from wood, fiber, metal, glass rather than plastics and clothing made from wool and 100% cotton rather than synthetics/acrylics.

Joseph's House Sports Raffle

The raffle of sports memorabilia to benefit Joseph's House of Camden continues until November 23 for autographed footballs from Jalen Hurts and Miles Sanders, as well as autographed posters by Tyrese Maxey, and Tobias Harris and a basketball autographed by Shake Milton.

Don't miss out!!!

Raffle tickets available at <http://weblink.donorperfect.com/jhoc.5kRaffle>.

Please note: In November, turkeys have priority for freezer space. Please wait until November 19th and 20th to place your casseroles in the freezer in the Servers Room in the Ministry Center. All non-perishable items may be placed on the cart at any time. If you can, please use the pans and lids provided for the casseroles which can be found in the lower left cabinet on the church wall behind the Welcome Desk. Cherry Hill Food Pantry

Semi-annual Collection

Cherry Hill Food Pantry

As you know, Christ Our Light is one of the churches which supports the Cherry Hill Food Pantry. We support the Cherry Hill Food Pantry by furnishing volunteers several times a year. We also support the CHFP through an annual donation from our congregation. In the past, we have also supported them through several food collections during the year. However, their biggest need is money. Presently, the CHFP is working to create a new parking lot. The parking lot will allow the CHFP to return to the food distribution model which allows clients to come in and shop for the food they need and like. The estimated cost of the parking lot is $250,000. For the next few weeks, we will have envelopes at all the church doors. If you would like to make a donation, please put your donation in the envelope and put it in the regular offertory collection. Checks should be made out to the Cherry Hill Food Pantry (or CHFP). The CHFP is providing food to between 160-180 households per week. With rising food costs, this is an invaluable service. Thank you for your generosity.

Adopt-a-Family

Christmas may seem a long way off, but we are beginning our remote preparations for our Adopt-a-Family program. For those new to the parish, at Christmas we have several initiatives to help others in need. We have a giving tree which supports families helped through Guadalupe Family Services. We also support women who have elected not to have an abortion through our pro-life ministry. In the past we have also collected gifts for the residents at Barclay Nursing Home, but will be unable to do that this year (at their request) due to covid. At the Christmas Masses, we collect baby items which are donated to Options for Women, First Way in Collingswood and Good Counsel Home. One of the other opportunities we have for giving at Christmas is through our adopt-a-family program. Last year we were able to help 50 families with gifts and gift cards.

There are several ways to be a part of the adopt-a-family program. One way is to volunteer to adopt an entire family. You get to choose the family size that you can support. Some of these families prefer that the donor families shop for them and others prefer getting gift cards so they can shop for their children. Other families help out by not adopting an entire family, but instead, donating gift cards or checks which go into a pool which we use for these families. If you are interested in being a part of our adopt-a-family program, please contact Pat Slater in the parish office 856-667-2440 x. 327 or by email at pslater@christourlight.net. If your family is in need of being adopted this year, please contact Pat as well. All requests are confidential.
