Stewardship

Ideal Steward

"And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart." LUKE 2:19

Stewardship a way of life After Jesus, we look to Mary as an ideal Steward. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God's call. She heard God's message, and immediately said "yes." Mary teaches us to live with joy and gratitude for the many blessings God has given us. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we are called to reflect Christ's light to the world. We do this through lives of gratitude and generosity.

Spotlight on Ministry: Liturgical Ministries Part 2

Christ Our Light
Spotlight on Ministry

Here is a look at some of the other liturgical ministries that John spoke to the Pastoral Council about at our November meeting.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EM's) – EM's serve the community by assisting in the distribution of communion at all parish liturgies. EM's are trained through the diocesan Office of Worship School of Liturgy programs. Once that training is complete, individuals are prepared to serve at Christ Our Light by parish staff or other experienced EM's. schedules are created based on individual availability and the needs of the parish. There are currently 58 EM's, with 5 new prospective ministers. If you are interested in becoming a Eucharistic Minister, please contact Janet George at janetg_313@comcast.net or John Vovak at jvovak@christourlight.net

Mass Assistants – formerly known as the Usher ministry, this new ministry serves the parish community in the celebration of the liturgy. As ministers of hospitality, Mass Assistants greet people and assist in seating as needed. Their responsibilities include coordinating the offering of gifts, assisting anyone with special needs, ensuring the church is ready for the next Mass, and other duties as necessary for special occasions. The goal is to have 3-6 Mass Assistants at every Mass. There are 26 active Mass Assistants. If you are interested in becoming a Mass Assistant, please contact Chris Fencil at cfencil@comcast.net or John Vovak at jvovak@christourlight.net

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Luke 2:16-21

When was the last time you were in awe of something God had done for you? Take some time this week and reflect on that experience in your heart as Mary did

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

How do you react when you don't quite understand something? Do you get frustrated and want to give up? Or do you have patience and keep at it as Mary did?

Children:

The shepherds were very joyful after meeting the baby Jesus. What makes you joyful?

Bible in A Year & Catechism in A Year - Have you ever wanted to read the whole Bible from Genesis to Revelations? Or wanted to read the Catechism of the Catholic Church? Here is your opportunity, come join millions of Catholics who are on this journey together.

The "Bible in a Year Podcast", hosted by Fr. Mike Schmitz and produced by the Catholic group "Ascension Presents" has been on top of the US charts for 2 years now. Fr Mike reads a few chapters of the Bible every day followed by a short reflection which helps us understand the context better.

The COL Prayer group hosts a "WhatsApp" group that posts daily episodes of the "Bible in a year" which you can listen to at your convenience. Please sign up for this free program before Dec 31st as the program starts Jan 1 2023 - Dec 31 2023.

In addition to the BIAY, we also offer a new program "Catechism in A Year" which will follow a similar format - daily episodes that last about 20 mins. Please text or call Mike to sign up at 908-636-0454

Justice & Community Outreach

Joseph's House

Joseph's HOUSE

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU for the generous support that you have given to Joseph's
House of Camden

throughout this past year. The monthly donations of casseroles, snacks, sandwiches, baked goods, non-perishable items, clothing, toiletries, bedding and so much more have helped to sustain the program and brought joy and comfort to our homeless brothers and sisters.

AT THIS TIME, MONETARY DONATIONS ARE MUCH NEEDED AND WELCOME. Last year, Joseph's House served about 2200 individuals through their day program, as well as serving about 52,000 meals. By October of 2022, the day program had already touched more than 4000 individuals and, before November, served over 71,000 meals. Despite this amazing work, Joseph's House is struggling to meet a financial deficit at the end of a long and very productive year. The Annual Appeal is underway. Please consider lending your support. If you have not already done so, you can donate at www.jhoc.org or send your donation to:

Joseph's House of Camden
20 Church Street
Camden, NJ 08105

Thank you for your continued commitment to this ministry. Wishing you a blessed Christmas and a New Year filled with joy and peace. If you have any questions, please contact Phyllis Sanders at dfcps@hotmail.com or (856) 667-7064.

Good clothing that is collected is given for free to charities in need. Clothing that needs to be recycled is sold for pennies on the dollar for parts of the world which could use them.

Sandwich Making Ministry

Sandwich Making will take place on Sunday, January 29th from 8-11 in the Parish Center. All are welcome to come. This month we will be requesting bread, turkey, beef bologna and cheese.

Additionally, we will be making PB&J Sandwiches during the winter months for Fr. Mike McHugh's Last Stop program. Parishioners are invited to make PB&J at home and drop them off on Sunday morning or bring PB&J supplies and make them in-person.

Blessing Our Homes on Epiphany

Blessing Our Homes on Epiphany

Catholics have blessed their homes on Epiphany for hundreds of years – which included the tradition of “chalking the doors.” The ritual includes prayers and using chalk to write the following above the entrance of the home: 20 + C + M + B + 23. The “20” and “23” refer to the year, so the last number changes to reflect the new year. Each + reminds us of the cross. The letters C, M, and B have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi who visited the Christ Child: Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar. They also are the first letters of the Latin phrase Christus Mansionem Benedicat – “May Christ Bless this House.” Taken together, the inscription asks Jesus to bless and be with the family of this home throughout the year. Sometimes, people also hang the first Christmas card with the Three Magi depicted that they receive along with the inscription.

These types of traditions help us to live our faith in a more tangible way. They also act as a reminder and sign of our relationship with God. Consider blessing your home this Epiphany. It is a great way for us to dedicate our families and homes to Jesus.

Below is a prayer service from the U.S. Bishops Conference. It can be used with or without chalking the doors. Other prayer services can be found on the internet by searching for Epiphany house blessings. If you would like to share a picture of your door chalking or prayer service with us so we can publicly share it with others, please send them to photos@christourlight.net and include your name in the email. Submitting a photo authorizes permission for the photo to be published publicly – such as on the web and/or social media. We are excited to see your home blessings!

PRAYER SERVICE

When all have gathered, a suitable song may be sung. Everyone makes the sign of the cross, and all reply, “Amen.”

The leader greets those present in the following words:

Let us praise God, who fills our hearts and homes with peace. Blessed be God forever.

Response (R/). Blessed be God forever.

In the following or similar words, the leader prepares those present for the blessing:

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling place among us. It is Christ who enlightens our hearts and homes with his love. May all who enter this home find Christ’s light and love.

One of those present or the leader reads a text of sacred Scripture, for example, Luke 19:1-9:

Listen to the words of the holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way.> When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.” And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, “He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner.” But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.” And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.”

The intercessions are then prayed:

Leader: The Son of God made his home among us. With thanks and praise let us call upon him.

All respond: Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, with Mary and Joseph you formed the Holy Family: remain in our home, that we may know you as our guest and honor you as our Head.

We pray:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, you had no place to lay your head, but in the spirit of poverty accepted the hospitality of your friends: grant that through our help the homeless may obtain proper housing.

We pray:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, the three kings presented their gifts to you in praise and adoration: grant that those living in this house may use their talents and abilities to your greater glory.

We pray:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

After the intercessions, the door may be chalked (optional).

Then the leader invites all present to say the Lord’s Prayer.

The leader says the prayer of blessing with hands joined:

Lord God of heaven and earth,
you revealed your only-begotten Son to every nation
by the guidance of a star.
Bless this house and all who inhabit it.
Fill them(us) with the light of Christ,
that their(our) concern for others may reflect your love.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen.

The leader concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the sign of the cross and saying:

May Christ Jesus dwell with us,
keep us from all harm,
and make us one in mind and heart, now and forever.

R/. Amen.

*It is preferable to end the celebration with a suitable song, for example,
“O Come, All Ye Faithful” or “We Three Kings.”*
