Stewardship

Good Stewards

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." MATTHEW 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. The more we recognize God's gifts, the more we want to share them. Good Stewards recognize that God is working through them and they don't put themselves above the people they have been called to help.

Stewardship of Treasure

Parish News

Rite of Welcome

On Sunday, January 22 during the 11am Mass, families preparing to celebrate a sacrament came together for a special "Rite of Welcome" blessing with Deacon Frank presiding. Families preparing for the Baptism of a child, children preparing for 1st Communion and Confirmation, and engaged couples preparing for Marriage all were invited to participate. The Rite of Welcome is a beautiful way for the parish community to show support and prayer for the participants during this special time.

Calling all MOCHA (Mothers of Children who have Autism) out there!

Come and join in prayer and conversation about the struggles, realities, and laughter of being a MOCHA. Meetings will be held the 4th Tuesday of the month in the St. John Room of the Parish Center, 7 -8:30 PM. Light refreshments will be served each month. Pastoral Council

7 Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

In October 2021, Pope Francis officially opened the Synod on Synodality. It is a process that includes listening to the people and hearing where and how the Holy Spirit is guiding us. The hope for this process is that "by walking together, and together reflecting on the journey made, the church will be able to learn from what it will experience, which processes can help it to live communion, to achieve participation, to open itself to mission."

In following the Synodal process, the Pastoral Council desires to consult and seek the wisdom of the People of God in our parish. We welcome your feedback and comments on how we at Christ Our Light can live our daily lives as witnesses to the Good News of the Gospel.

A suggestion box will be at the Welcome Desk and the Pastoral Council can also be contacted at PastoralCouncil@christourlight.net.

7 Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. In seven reflections, the key themes at the heart of our Catholic social tradition are highlighted.

Theme 5 of 7 The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers - The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected – the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative

40 Days for Life

Praise be to God that Roe vs. Wade was overturned by the Supreme Court. Abortion will no longer be promoted as a constitutional right!

Now it is up to each state to set limits. Sadly, New Jersey permits abortion through the entire 9 months of pregnancy. The Cherry Hill Women's Center has increased its number of abortions due to out of state clients.

The next 40 Days for Life campaign begins Ash Wednesday. However, ours has now become one of several "365" campaigns throughout the country and we are seeking new volunteers. No experience is needed- just a heart for babies and their mothers.

Beginning immediately join us for one hour Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday from 7am – noon.

During Lent we aim to have at least 2 people praying each hour from 7am -7pm on these days as well as Saturday.

Go to www.40daysforlife.com/cherryhill to find out more and register. By the abortion industry's own admission our presence outside can result in up to a 75% no show rate for abortion appointments! You can save lives!

Email claire@helpersnj.org or call/text Claire at 856-313-9861 for more information or for help signing up.

Men's Five Day Retreat

Openings Available on Men's Five-Day Retreat

A group of South Jersey men meets regularly on Sunday mornings for prayer and sharing. The group also organizes an annual five-day retreat at various Catholic retreat centers. This year's retreat will be held at Bethany Retreat Center in Frenchville, Pennsylvania from Wednesday afternoon March 8 through Sunday morning March 12, 2023. Openings are still available for men of any faith or age who would like to participate in this retreat experience. The retreat is conducted and led by the men of the South Jersey group. The retreat includes daily group sessions around topics of interest to men, plenty of free time, prayer, meditation experiences, drumming, and taking meals together in the monastic tradition. The schedule allows time for reflection and sharing on changes and challenges brought about by the pandemic and the internet. How does a man grow spiritually in the modern world? For more information contact Deacon Leo McBlain at lmcblain@christourlight.net.

Black History Month

During the month of February the United States recognizes the profound contributions Black Americans have made to the patchwork of our national quilt. There is not a single art form or industry that has gone without change influenced by Black perspectives. From a global point of view, even institutions we see as immovable or unchanging have been altered by the African diaspora. In my personal vocation, it is difficult to go a single day without being witness to the magnitude of these contributions. It would be impossible to theoretically analyze the harmonic, rhythmic, or stylistic structure of a piece of church music written in the last 100 years, without understanding the impact that Black Americans have had on the American musical voice. At the root of this influence is a single musical genre unique to music development in America — the Spiritual.

During the “Great Awakening” of the 1730s, societal norms shifted in the American Colonies and Black Americans became exposed, more than ever before, to the religion of their captors. Biblical stories of the exile of the Jews and their captivity strongly resonated in the slave community as they began to see parallels with their own experience. The words from Israel’s Exodus and the trials of Moses form the thematic backbone to Spiritual songs.

The Spiritual also employed a very distinct set of musical devices. First, Spirituals departed from the march-like feel of protestant anthems of the 17th and 18th centuries. Instead, Spirituals had a strong rhythmic energy underpinning the text and melody. Spirituals made a revolutionary use of syncopation—often referred to as ‘ragged time.’ This syncopated style was more complex than other religious music of the day. Singing in a ‘ragged time’ manner would have added a sense of tension and release through each melodic and textual phrase, binding the music and lyrics together more tightly than the European model.

Conversely, the melodies and harmonies in Spirituals were simpler and more accessible. Rather than employing the 7 noted scale with which the Protestants or Catholics would have been familiar, Spirituals took advantage of a pentatonic, or 5 noted scale. This made melodies easier to sing as a community and easier to remember. This would have been especially important to a community that did not have access to written music.

Taken together, all of these attributes formed the personality of the Spiritual. This distinct style would withstand the test of time and go on to influence not only the development of Gospel, Jazz, and the Blues, but also have a lasting impact on nearly every other American music genre that followed.

To kick off our observance of Black History Month here at Christ our Light, we had a lecture and sing-along evening with our young people in YFF in which these ideas and themes were considered and discussed. We will continue the celebration of Black History through the rendition of Gospel and Spiritual songs at weekend Masses throughout the month of February.
