Stewardship

Stewardship Virtues

Stewardship
a way of life

"You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything..." - EXODUS 20:4

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times, they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God's help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue in Stewardship.

Check out the schedule of events at the website here: <https://www.eucharisticcongress.org/schedule>

Day 5: Sunday, July 21, 2024 - "To the Ends of the Earth" - Pope Francis said the Eucharist is "a summons to go forth, as missionaries, to bring the message of the Father's tenderness, forgiveness and mercy to every man, woman and child." Throughout the history of the Church, the Holy Spirit has empowered the Church to go to the ends of the earth to share the good news.

In less than six months. On Sunday, July, 21st, the final day of the 10th National Eucharistic Congress will be unfolding. On this day, we will be commissioned to go out into the world as missionary disciples as we enter the third year of the National Eucharistic Revival: the Year of Mission.

This session will be led by Chris Stefanick, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, Monste Alvarado, Fr. Josh Johnson, and Dave Moore. The Congress will end with a beautiful Mass celebrated by a papal delegate with music by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. Be sure to get your tickets now!

Christ Our Light Book Group

We will meet Thursday, March 21 at 7:30 pm, to discuss The Chancellor: The Remarkable Odyssey of Angela Merkel by Kati Marton.

One Reviewer: Famously private, the woman who emerges from this “impressively researched” (The Wall Street Journal) account is a role model for anyone interested in gaining and keeping power while staying true to one’s moral convictions. At once a “riveting” (Los Angeles Review of Books) political biography and intimate revelatory look at successful leadership in action, The Chancellor brings forth one of the most extraordinary women of our time.

Hope you can join in at the Parish Center's St John's room, or remotely: contact Tom for Zoom credentials. Contact: Tom deWolf 856-298-0089 tjmdewolf@gmail.com

Thank You

The family of John Murray greatly appreciate and will always remember your kind expression of sympathy.

Soup, Sharing, and Prayer: "Moving from Charity to Justice"

This year our Lenten Soup Suppers program will focus on the two "feet" of social justice: charity and justice, and how to move from direct service to advocating for structural change. We will discuss three of the seven Catholic Social Teaching themes, one for each of the three Soup Suppers.

The program is scheduled from 6-7 pm and will be held in the Parish Center's St. Mary Room. Feel welcome to attend even if you cannot provide soup, but it is important to register in advance so we can alert you if the event is canceled due to bad weather. A Story of Hope From El Salvador

“I made the decision to be a promoter because I wanted to have new knowledge; no one can take knowledge away from you.” —Sandra Amaya

In Sandra Amaya’s home in Morazán, El Salvador, everyone helps with the chores. Early in the morning Sandra lights the firewood to cook, prepares coffee and sweeps the chicken coop. Oscar, her eldest son, helps make breakfast before walking nearly two hours to his high school. Nine-year-old Gamaliel grinds corn and, after having breakfast, goes to school accompanied by his father Santos and his little brother, Caleb.

Santos, Sandra’s husband, is a farmer, but longer droughts and unpredictable rains have reduced his harvests and, therefore, his income. Seeking to earn extra money, Sandra began selling bread, tamales and empanadas. When she heard about a Catholic Relief Services project on raising chickens, Sandra didn’t hesitate to join. She learned about preparing food for chickens and that they eat better if they are in a pen. She also learned how to vaccinate and take care of them if they get sick.

As soon as Sandra received some chickens from the project, she began to apply her knowledge. Now her family has access to their own eggs, which saves them money on food, especially now that prices are so high. In addition, her family eats healthier because they can eat a variety of foods, instead of just beans or tortillas with salt.

Sandra wants to keep learning and Santos supports her. “I made the decision to be a promoter because I wanted to have new knowledge; no one can take knowledge away from you,” she says. “I discussed it with my husband and he agreed.” When she travels far to attend a training, Santos takes care of the children. Upon her return, Sandra enjoys supporting other families by teaching them everything she learned.

Our Catholic faith teaches us how important it is to live in community for our growth and fulfillment. We believe that all people should participate in society, seeking the well-being of all, especially that of our sisters and brothers in need, just as Sandra does.
