Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for April 28, 2024
John 15:1-8

Adults:

The Gospel clearly and repeatedly speaks of perseverance, "Remaining" in Jesus. What does this perseverance mean to you?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth:

In your life of faith how or what makes you feel connected with God?

Children:

In life we have friends and it is good that we do, but how do we remain good friends with someone?

Mom's Group

Are you a mom of a young child looking to meet other moms while building deeper community bonds in the parish?

The friendships & support from previous groups in the parish has been a testimony of love and care. Contact Desiree Hernandez to share your ideas as we plan to revive the Mom's ministry for parents with young children. Desiree.Hernandez@comcast.net.

Are you a retired teacher? Current teacher? Classroom Aide? Music instructor? Art teacher? Current volunteer catechist? Are you willing to share your faith with students in grades 2 – 6? Contact Ginny Grogan at the Elementary Faith Formation Office at ggrogan@christourlight.net.

What will Summer EFF look like?

- 2 weeks – Monday – Friday
- 1:00 – 4:14pm
- Opening Prayer Service each day
- 2 textbook lessons each day
- Additional activities: liturgical music, ways to pray, service projects, Diocesan Safe Environment lesson, church tours, and more!

Eucharistic Revival

This summer, the National Eucharistic Congress will have several “tracks.” We will continue to explore each of the tracks so you can plan your trip!

The RENEWAL Track:

In a few months from now, the 10th National Eucharistic Congress will be underway! We will be gathered in Indianapolis for this monumental moment within the three-year grassroots movement of Revival, and we hope you will join us!

Today, we have a special invitation for all those involved in ministry leadership. Whether you’ve spent only a few months in ministry or 70+ years, you know the challenges and blessings that come with serving the Church. In gratitude for your work, we have created a community-focused experience just for you.

Fulfilling the call to be a disciple demands constant conversion, renewal, and docility to the Holy Spirit. These sessions will invite you to explore new and creative possibilities of accompaniment, evangelization, and catechesis. This experience will equip you in your ministry as a parish, diocesan, or apostolate leader to cultivate revival in your respective vineyards.

Emceed by Mari Pablo, these morning impact sessions include some of the most respected names in ministry, such as Damon Owens, Sarah Kaczmarek, Julianne Stanz, and Curtis Martin. Attendees can expect plenty of time for discussion, Q&A, and moments of prayer with peers.

These sessions are for anyone who serves in a parish, diocesan, or other ministry role, whether you are full-time, part-time, or a volunteer. If you would like to connect with others who share your mission and challenges, then this is a fantastic way for you to participate at the Congress.

www.eucharisticcongress.org for full details!

Healing Our Throwaway Culture: A Focus on Plastics

Commitments Handout

Take this list home and consider what further action/commitments you can take on a personal and community level.

Make a personal commitment

If you'd like to reduce your personal consumption of plastics, here are a few suggestions:

1. The first and foremost question in the spirit of Franciscan simplicity of living and poverty of possessions is, "Do I really need this product?" Be aware of personal WANTS versus NEEDS. Stop buying things you don't really need!
2. Purchasing decisions that reduce plastics:
 - Buy fruit and vegetables not packaged in plastic. Consider buying from local greengrocers or farmers' markets instead of supermarkets, and take your own fabric shopping bag.
 - Aim to purchase things in glass jars and bottles instead of plastic containers — i.e.: drinks, jams, spreads, vitamins, etc.
 - Think about buying bars of soap/shampoo — instead of plastic pump bottles. Purchase detergents in cardboard boxes.
 - Don't buy bottled water. Get a reusable steel water bottle and fill it from the tap.
 - Say no to single-use plastic, such as drinking straws, knives and forks, and plastic-lined drink cups.
 - Use loose tea leaves — most tea bags are sealed with plastic.
 - Refuse styrofoam food and drink containers. Urge your local municipality to ban them.
3. Replace plastic Tupperware with glass or steel containers and replace cling-film with Beeswax Wrap.
4. Reuse and give plastic packaging a new purpose. If you must buy a plastic bottle or a plastic container, reuse it instead of throwing it away.
5. Recycle plastics correctly. Look at the labels: #1 and #2 plastics are almost always recyclable, while #6 plastics aren't always accepted. Check with your local municipality to see what is locally accepted for recycling.
6. Share the Plastic Pollution Treaty Petition with friends, family, and community members.
7. Participate as an individual (and/or family) in Plastic Free July.

Join us online, Wednesdays at 7PM for study, reflection, and conversation on readings from Church history. We'll look at an excerpt each week from the writings of significant writers in church
