Stewardship

Stewardship Forever

"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (GENESIS 2:19)

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, Stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations

Come and See

So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate.

These two sentences of Jesus are at the heart of His teaching on divorce in our Gospel today. This teaching of Jesus is one of His most controversial because it dramatically differs from society's acceptance of divorce. While the stigma associated with divorce has lessened over time, its impact on people, families and society has not. So for those of us who have suffered pain and loss due to divorce - I am very sorry. Please know that this teaching of Jesus is not intended to shame or blame - for this is not who Jesus is. Jesus tells us that He came so that we could have life and have it more abundantly. So when we see Jesus opposed to divorce, there must be something about it that is not aligned to God's plan for us to have abundant life and love.

Jesus invites us to Come and See God's original intent by teaching from the second creation account in Genesis. And what we hear God say is that it is not good for us to be alone. We are created to be in communion with others. Just as God is a communion of Persons sharing a nature, so too are we, as children of God, created to be a communion of persons sharing a nature in marriage. Since unconditional love is the foundation of this communion of persons, it will be life-giving - animating the lives of the spouses and affording the opportunity for new life. Their children will be a physical representation of unconditional love.

This unity is forged through a covenant - a binding promise motivated out of love that endures. Jesus is the living embodiment - the New Covenant - of God telling us there are no conditions when God walks away. This reality calls us to action. As a community of faith, we must journey with our sisters and brothers who are divorced and minister to their needs. We are also called to align ourselves with God's intent for marriage. We need to invite our youth and young adults to Come and See what marriage truly is and validate their own capacity to live it well.

It is not by chance that our Gospel ends with Jesus welcoming and blessing children. Affirming the dignity of children affirms the dignity and sacredness of marriage and family. May we boldly celebrate God's vision for marriage and family. In doing so, we will experience and share God's abundant Life and Love... Come and See!

God bless you, Deacon Joe

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for October 6, 2024
Mark 10:2 - 12

Adults:

How does “hardness of heart” make it difficult to maintain relationships?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God’s word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God’s word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God’s presence (Contemplatio): Notice God’s presence and be still, surrounded by God’s love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God’s nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth:

What helps you keep commitments? What makes it difficult?

Children:

What are some of the blessings God has given you?

30s & 40s Bible Reflection Group

Our next meeting is Monday, October 7 at 7:45PM in the San Lorenzo Room.

Are you interested in diving into Scripture and sharing your thoughts with others in their 30s & 40s? Join us on the first and third Monday of the month to review the most recent Sunday’s readings as we reflect on God’s Word. Dinners and other fun activities to be planned every couple of months. Single and married are welcome to join. For more information, please contact Meg Sundell, megsundell@gmail.com

Bereavement Ministry Thank You!

Last month, the parish Bereavement Ministry team enjoyed a breakfast thanking them for their dedication to this vital parish ministry. These volunteer women compassionately meet with bereaved family members to plan all funerals held at our parish. Our Bereavement Ministers often attend the funerals as well in solidarity with the family. A special thank you to all of our bereavement ministers: Sr. Mary Berryman, Susan Cappuccio, Carla Clarke, Janice Coffey, Alice Corica, Sr. Peggy Devlin, Frances Estrella, Jan George, Kay Giampetro, Sr. Dorothy Giloley, Carolyn Taylor, Sue Schirmer, and Pat Vigna.

Christ Our Light Book Group

Our next meeting is Thursday, October 24 to discuss 'How to Be Human: An Autistic Man's Guide to Life' by Jory Fleming, Lyric Winik (Editor). Please join us in the Parish Center's St John room from 7:30 to 9 pm. Or contact Tom for Zoom link. All are welcome! Contact: Tom deWolf tjmdewolf@gmail.com / 856-298-0089

Book Summary:

How to Be Human is a "profound, thought provoking" exploration of life amid a world constructed for neurotypical brains when yours is not." (Barry M. Pizant, PhD, author of Uniquely Human)

As a child, Jory Fleming was wracked by uncontrollable tantrums, had no tolerance for people, and couldn't manage the outside world. Slightly more than a decade later, he was bound for England, selected to attend one of the world's premier universities as the first young adult with autism to attend Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar.

Through a series of deep, personal conversations with writer Lyric Winik, Jory makes a compelling case for logical empathy based on rational thought, asks why we tolerate friends who see us as a means to an end, and explains why he believes personality is a choice. Most movingly, he discusses how, after many hardships, he maintains a deep, abiding faith: "With people, I don't understand what goes in and what comes out, and how to relate," he says. "But I can always reconnect with my relationship with my Creator."

Youth Ministry

The Youth Faith Formation Experience Invites You to the Next Event...

What We Do at YFF

Here At YFF We Spend Time Crafting ENGAGING Teen Programs that are year round. Our Catechists and Teen Leaders include a weekly blend of creativity, relevance, and excitement in youth events with a focus on spirituality and social connections.

Programs are Built With Teens in Mind!

YFF Programs call students to Encounter God in our spaces through the connections we build together in faith.

Relevance and Engagement:

- Our Team is Ready to Relate to students interests: Incorporate topics and activities that are relevant to teens' lives, such as social media, gaming, or current events.
- Students are offered Interactive activities year round: We Encourage participation (basketball, volleyball, ping pong, eGaming...)

Variety and Novelty:

- We Constantly Mix Things up: Our Team offers a variety of activities and formats to keep things fresh and interesting. Group Events include unexpected twists or challenges to keep participants engaged. From Shake Shack, to Rock Climbing, local immersions, Dave's Hot Chicken Meetup, Pilgrimages to NYC, Mission Mustard Seed Jamaica Orphanage which includes a beach day.

Peer-to-Peer Learning:

- Youth leadership: Teens will be Empowered and offered collaborative projects with a focus on peer to peer learning.

Community and Connection:

- Social events are a big part of the event. YFF is a place where - Friends Meet Friends... Every student leaves feeling and knowing they belong.
- Community Service: challenges students to give back to their parish community then the larger community and global world. Projects include- Alaska Mission, Joseph's House, Mustard Seed, Service WorX, SSI Neighborhood Center, Urban Promise, etc.

Technology and Innovation:

- Digital tools: technology is used in our group session, apps such as Hallow, the Bible, Ted Talk, Calm are some of the favorite go to apps... We are constantly redesigning our model with innovative ideas.

Feedback and Evaluation:

- Gather feedback: Teens are asked at different points - What does your ideal faith program look like? What does it include and why? We dare to ask the question What's Missing.
- Evaluate effectiveness: Our team is always ready to assess the impact of programs to make necessary adjustments.

Community-Based Programs:

- Service Projects: that align with teens' interests and values here at the parish and in the larger community.

Faith-Based Programs:

- Bible Studies and Discussions: We Do Offer interactive Bible studies and discussions that are relevant to teens' lives.
- Retreats and Camps: We Organize retreats or camps that provide opportunities for spiritual growth and reflection during the school year and summer. See the calendar.
- Worship Experiences: We Create engaging worship experiences that incorporate music, prayer, and storytelling in class session and for liturgical retreats.

Creative and Experiential Programs:

- Sessions Sometimes Include Arts and Crafts Workshops: There We Explore creative outlets through workshops in painting, music, writing or holy stretching with Leslie, Open Gym Evenings, Pizza Nights...

Leadership Development Programs:

- Leadership Training: In each session the goal is to equip teens with leadership skills through mentoring.
