Stewardship

Stewardship Calling

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." (MARK 10:25)

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. However, in Stewardship we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Come and See

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard is it for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. Mark 10:17-30

In today's gospel, a rich young man asks Jesus: "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" He doesn't tell him right away what he must do. Rather he focuses on the man's use of the word "good." Jesus points toward God's goodness which is at the center of all.

He tells the young man that simply obeying the commandments is not enough. Jesus asks him to "Go, sell what you have and give to the poor." Not only did the young man value his possessions but in those days, society viewed material wealth as a sign of spiritual virtue. No wonder he walked away sad. Abandoning wealth, power and control to God is not impossible but is extremely difficult. It is not having riches that pose an obstacle, but rather what matters is what one does with one's possessions. It is the total surrender to God that brings abundance of life to all.

Our possessions are often a source of security; we feel taken care of and prepared for emergencies by owning certain things. This can create an illusion of control and can lead us to forget our dependence on God. It is good to practice detachment, enough that we can leave the things that pull us away from God and invest in the things that bring us closer to Him. Growing in our relationship with God is the end goal. And sometimes this requires saying goodbye. Luckily, Jesus promises to be with us every step of the way.

Once again Jesus moves outside of the conventional wisdom, a worldview that equates wealth with blessings from above. When we see images of the rich and powerful, we sometimes think that all these things reflect being near to God. Jesus says, it's not what we have that saves us; it's what we are willing to let go as demonstrated by the lives of St. Francis of Assisi, St. Katharine Drexel and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton to name a few.

What things in your life might you be too attached to? What will it take for you to give them up? What is the first step you can make today that will move you toward giving yourself and trusting God completely? What can you do today so you don't walk away sad? Change is never easy, but Jesus tells us that with God anything is possible. Come and See!

May God bless you! - Luisa Foster, Pastoral Council

Christ Our Light Book Group

Our next meeting is Thursday, October 24 to discuss 'How to Be Human: An Autistic Man's Guide to Life' by Jory Fleming, Lyric Winik (Editor). Please join us in the Parish Center's St John room from 7:30 to 9 pm. Or contact Tom for Zoom link. All are welcome! Contact: Tom deWolf tjmdewolf@gmail.com / 856-298-0089

Book Summary:

How to Be Human is a "profound, thought provoking" exploration of life amid a world constructed for neurotypical brains when yours is not." (Barry M. Pizant, PhD, author of Uniquely Human)

As a child, Jory Fleming was wracked by uncontrollable tantrums, had no tolerance for people, and couldn't manage the outside world. Slightly more than a decade later, he was bound for England, selected to attend one of the world's premier universities as the first young adult with autism to attend Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar.

Through a series of deep, personal conversations with writer Lyric Winik, Jory makes a compelling case for logical empathy based on rational thought, asks why we tolerate friends who see us as a means to an end, and explains why he believes personality is a choice. Most movingly, he discusses how, after many hardships, he maintains a deep, abiding faith: "With people, I don't understand what goes in and what comes out, and how to relate," he says. "But I can always reconnect with my relationship with my Creator."

Knights of Columbus

Congratulations to the parish's Knights of Columbus council who were awarded the KOC's highest honor, the STAR award. Of the more than 11,000 councils world wide only 7% earn this award annually. Based on service hours & financial assistance to church & community, financial benefits education, and membership recruitment the council exceeded all quotas for the fiscal year 2023-24. Congratulations to all the Cherry Hill Knights!
