Come and See

Christ is risen! Truly He is risen!

I spent my childhood Easters in Mahanoy City - a small coal mining town in north eastern Pennsylvania. For such a tiny town, there were a plethora of ethnic Catholic Churches and my family belonged to St. Joseph's - the Lithuanian Catholic Church. Each Easter morning as we walked to Mass, a ritual occurred as people went by each other. Someone would say, "Christ is risen!" And the response would be "Truly He is risen!" or "Indeed He is risen!" In a town filled with immigrant families who often struggled to make ends meet, there was a reality spoken aloud each Easter that framed how life is lived... Christ is risen! This simple yet profound phrase is our foundation of hope.

Christian hope is not mere optimism or wishful thinking. It does not rely on human effort nor favorable circumstances. It is grounded in the death and resurrection of Jesus, which boldly proclaims that pain, suffering and death are not the end of our story. Our ending is everlasting life. Thus, our hope is anchored in the past - the resurrection of Jesus, orients us towards the future - everlasting life, and transforms how we live each day presently. It sustains us in our journey, especially when the road is difficult. It motivates us to share the Good News of Jesus with others and work towards a better world. It helps us to see possibilities even when faced with resignation and pessimism. It literally transforms our lives as we allow God to shape and move us in ways we never imagined.

Come and See! The tomb is empty. Light conquers darkness. Death is filled with life. As we enjoy baskets of candy, egg hunts, and family gatherings this Easter, may we also allow the joy and mystery of Easter to fill our lives with transformative hope. Perhaps we can share our hope with someone who needs to know...

Christ is risen! Truly He is risen!

Happy Easter!
God bless you, Deacon Joe

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for April 20, 2025

John 20: 1 - 9

Adults:

In what way have you risen from “darkness” in your life?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God’s word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God’s word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God’s presence (Contemplatio): Notice God’s presence and be still, surrounded by God’s love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God’s nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth:

Resurrection reminds us that what looks bad can lead to something good. What has resurrected, or gone from bad to good, in your life over the past year?

Children:

What is good and new in your life?

Women’s Cornerstone Retreat Postponed

The Emptiness of our Hands: 47 Days on the Streets

At the outset of Lent, the awe-inspiring author, Phyllis Cole-Dai, joined us on zoom sharing the impetus for her 47 days on the streets with the homeless in Columbus, OH: “I was trying to get at something utterly heart breaking . . .”

We continued on our Lenten journey reading the book; Phyllis shared more stories and how the experience changed her during our March 31st zoom with the author.

As we celebrate Easter, our next step is to deepen our awareness of ministries and shelter for the homeless in our community. On Thursday, May 1st at 7:00 PM leadership and a volunteer from Joseph’s House and Cathedral Kitchen will join us via zoom. The zoom link will follow in next week’s edition.

Finally, local immersion experiences in Camden are planned for this summer. Much more to come as we discover the sacred in ourselves and others~

SANTACRUZAN 2025

is coming to

Christ Our Light Parish

402 N. Kings Hwy Cherry Hill, NJ 08034

Sunday, May 18, 2025

12:30 PM Rosary 1:00 PM Holy Mass

"Santacruzán", Spanish for "Holy Cross", honors the finding of the True Cross of Jesus by St. Helena. Early in the 4th century, St. Helena, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine, went to Jerusalem in search of the True Cross. During the excavation, workers found 3 crosses. Legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when its touch healed a dying person. Santacruzán is also celebrated in the month of May to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Santacruzán is a grand procession that commemorates Queen Helena's journey. It features a parade of elegantly dressed participants representing various biblical and historical figures, each symbolizing virtues such as faith, hope and charity.

The celebration will begin with the Holy Rosary at 12:30 PM and the Holy Mass at 1:00 PM. A procession will follow and then fellowship at the Parish Center gym.

Please join us as we bring this Filipino tradition to our parish.
