Stewardship

Stewardship Self-Control

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 TIMOTHY 1:7

Stewardship
a way of life

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good Steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

Come and See

Be God's vision to the world.

This can be challenging - especially when our lives are distressed and God appears to be silent.

The prophet Habakkuk was surrounded by violence and destruction. He waited for God to intervene but nothing appeared to be happening. So he raised his voice to God and prayed: "How long, O Lord? I cry for help but you do not listen!" What a powerful question that many of us can relate to from our own experiences.

God responded to him but did not offer an immediate fix. Rather, God provided a vision for Habakkuk to write down in big bold letters so it could be easily read by people. Habakkuk was an instrument of God's vision. While the vision itself offers hope, let us not overlook the significance of the person conveying and holding up that vision for all to see. The presence of Habakkuk testifies to the truth and believability of God's vision. Habakkuk may be hurting, but he completely trusts in God.

God tells Habakkuk that the vision still has time until it is fulfilled. In the meantime, we are to wait and be the just ones who live by faith. Notice that God does not dispute Habakkuk's suffering or the violence being endured. These things occur because the vision of God is still being revealed. Therefore, God affirms that our present reality is not our final ending. For we are part of a vast and intricately woven story of salvation that continues to unfold. And so we are called to wait and trust. Our waiting is not passive - we are called to action. For we know the end of the story: resurrection, everlasting life, with creation renewed. The death and resurrection of Jesus IS THE FINAL VICTORY and His Second Coming is the finale. This is God's vision for us. This is the hope we proclaim as we live by faith.

Jesus reminds us that our faith is measured not by quantity but by quality... "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed..." Faith does not need to be large — only real and living. A mustard seed is tiny, but alive, and full of potential. Even a small living faith can move mountains, because it roots us in God's power, not our own. May our faith root us in God's strength - enabling us to become living signs of God's love and hope.

God bless you, Deacon Joe

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for October 5, 2025

Luke 17: 5 - 10

Adults:

Some responsibilities come before our needs or wants. How do you meet those responsibilities?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth:

What does it feel like to put a responsibility to another ahead of your own want or need?

Children:

Do you listen to your parents and teachers when they tell you to do something? What helps you listen?

Parish Picnic Thank You

In addition to those listed last week, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to Luisa Foster, Pauline Sundell, and Mary Shashaty. May God bless each of you for your generosity and service.

111th World Day of Migrants & Refugees

October 4-5, 2025

The CABRINI PLEDGE An Invitation to be Keepers of Hope

"Migrants and refugees remind the Church of her pilgrim dimension, perpetually journeying towards her final homeland, sustained by a hope that is a theological virtue." - Pope Leo XIV, Message for the 111th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

The history of the U.S. Catholic Church, like the history of the United States itself, is very much intertwined with the phenomenon of migration. The first American citizen to be canonized a saint, Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini, was the embodiment of this. An immigrant from Italy, she adopted this country as her own. While often facing discrimination and seemingly impossible odds, she never succumbed to hopelessness. With relentless faith, she accompanied her fellow immigrants and others living on the margins of society with a great missionary zeal.

But Mother Cabrini's challenges, and the challenges of those she served, are not unique among the generations of Catholics and immigrants in general who have come to this land. This is not just a matter of history. It is a present reality in the life of our Church and nation.

As Catholics, we are called to recognize the face of Christ in each person we encounter, especially the poor and vulnerable. Jesus tells us in his own words: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me" (Matthew 25:35). The Gospel and the social teaching of the Church continually affirm the equal dignity of every person, irrespective of race, nationality, or immigration status.

The Cabrini Pledge is both a reminder of our immigrant heritage and a call to deeper engagement with our faith in response to current events. At a time when our culture is dominated by deep political divisions and reasonable disagreements about immigration policy, progress can feel impossible. But by witnessing to the God-given dignity of every person, including the migrants and refugees in our midst, we pave the way for an approach rooted in mercy, justice, and the common good. And together, like Mother Cabrini, we can be keepers of hope.

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

The Cabrini Pledge

I PLEDGE:

- To affirm, in word and deed, the inherent dignity of every person, regardless of immigration status or country of origin, seeing each as a child of God before all else.
- To engage with Scripture and the Church's social teaching, reflecting on the role of migration in salvation history, the history of the United States, and the history of my own family.
- To listen and learn about the circumstances facing migrants and refugees, including those in my community, with an open heart and mind.
- To seek opportunities for encounter, so as to grow in deeper understanding and communion that leads to an authentic solidarity with those in need.
- To consider what it means to be a good neighbor and how I am called to reflect the love and hope of Christ to others.
- To encourage civic dialogue that places the human person and the sanctity of families at the center of policymaking, especially toward the end of meaningful immigration reform.
- To join with Pope Leo in praying for all migrants and refugees as fellow travelers on the journey to our true homeland.

The New Year Starts!

The school year at Resurrection Catholic School has kicked off with so much energy and excitement! Our community has already come together for the PTO's Ice Cream Social and Back to School Night, making for fun and memorable evenings. Our 8th graders rolled up their sleeves for their annual Car Wash fundraiser, while our Broadway Beginners have started preparing for their upcoming production of Aristocats.

Clubs and activities are in full swing — Chess Club begins this week, intramural sports are keeping our students active, and Vets in Training is set to start on October 10th. It's wonderful to see students exploring new interests, learning, and building friendships both inside and outside the classroom.

Enrollment is still open for this year in grades 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 7th, and 8th — we'd love to welcome new families to our vibrant community! Inquiries and tours for the 2026–27 school year are also underway as we continue building every grade.

For admission questions, please contact Shannon Bianco at advancement@rcscherryhill.com or 856-667-3034, ext. 253.

Don't miss a moment of the fun — follow us on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/rcscherryhill> and Instagram @resurrectioncatholicschool to see all the smiles, achievements, and community moments happening at RCS.
